Whitehall, February 19, 1811.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the Night of the 6th Instant, or very early on the Morning of the 7th Instant, a Private Soldier of the 73d Regiment, while on Duty at the Outskirts of the Barrack-Yard at Braebourne Lees, was suddenly knocked down by a Blow from a Brick-Bat, when Two Men rushed upon him as he lay on the Ground, and he received a violent Blow from one of them with a Bill Hook, which nearly severed his left Hand from his Arm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons who committed the Assault above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall discover and apprehend the said Offenders, to be paid on Conviction by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

R. RYDER.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening of the 18th Instant, a Boat of the Rattlesnake Lugger, in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, commanded by Henry Pulley, Mate of the said Lugger, and the Boats of the Lively Cutter, in the Service of the Excise, chased on Shore, at the North End of Deal, a smuggling Lugger, laden with Ninety-six Half Ankers of Spirits, which were seized by the Officers of Excise; and, shortly after the Seizure, a Firing was commenced on the Revenue Boats and Officers by the Smugglers assembled on the Shore, whereby the said Henry Pulley was dangerously wounded, and Thomas Sutton, one of the Mariners of the Excise Cutter, was likewise dangerously (and it is supposed mortally) wounded; and that after the said Lugger and her Cargo were gotten off the Beach, a Party of the Military and of the Crews of the Revenue Boats, who were left to guard the said Boats, were again attacked and fired upon by the Smugglers, but fortunately without any Mischief ensuing;

His Royal Highness, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, for promoting the Discovery of the Persons guilty of the aforesaid Felonies, is graciously pleased hereby to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Persons concerned therein (except those that actually fired) who will discover any one or more of his Accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, adverting to the recent Frequency of such Outrages in the Vicinity of Deal, in Defiance of Law, and endangering the Lives of the Officers of this Revenue, and of the Military aiding them in the Discharge of their Duty, in order to evince their Determination to bring the Offenders to condign Punishment, and further to promote Discovery for the Attainment of that Object, are induced hereby to offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who will discover any one or more of the Persons guilty of either of the said Felonies, such Reward to be paid on his or their Conviction by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,

H. Richmond, Secretary.
