

Mary Hollis, Widow, at Saint Ann's, Middlesex, may, upon sufficiently proving his, her, or their Identity, hear of something to their Advantage, by making an early Application to Mr. David Browne, Solicitor, in Macclesfield aforesaid.—Henry Robinson and his Wife are both long since dead; and as it is not known whether they left any Issue, it is requested that any Person who knew either him or his Wife will give such early Information of the Facts to Mr. Browne as that they may be substantiated by Affidavits.

If no Claim is made before the 25th Day of March next, the Property will be divided.

This Advertisement will not be repeated.

Holbeach, March 1, 1811.

Whereas Clarke Mountain, of Holbeach, in the County of Lincoln, Taylor and Draper, hath by Deed, bearing Date the 25th Day of February 1811, assigned over all his Personal Estate and Effects, except the Wearing Apparel of himself, his Wife, and Family, unto Edward Goddard, of Holbeach aforesaid, Draper and Grocer, and John Newton, of the same Place, Innkeeper, in Trust, for the equal Benefit of themselves and each other of the Creditors of the said Clarke Mountain who shall execute the said Deed, or otherwise by Writing signify his or their Consent so to do, either to the said Trustees or to Mr. Harvey, their Solicitor, in Holbeach, within Two Calendar Months after Notice of the said Deed shall be inserted in the London Gazette, the Lincoln, Rutland, and Stamford Mercury, and the Cambridge Chronicle and Journal; Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Deed is left at the Office of the said Mr. Harvey, in Holbeach, for the Perusal and Signature of all the Creditors of the said Clarke Mountain; and if any one or more of the said Creditors shall neglect or refuse to execute the said Deed, or to signify his or their Intention so to do, within the Time above-mentioned, such Creditor or Creditors will be excluded the Benefit of the said Trust Property, and his or their Share or Shares of and in the same will become forfeited to the said Clarke Mountain for his own Use.—All Persons who stand indebted to the said Clarke Mountain are requested to pay their respective Debts immediately to the said Trustees, or at the Office above-mentioned, otherwise Actions will be commenced for Recovery without Delay.
