BANK DOLLAR TOKENS.

Whereas the Price of Silver has risen so much since the first Issue of Bank Dollar Tokens at Five Shillings each, as now to make them worth more to be sold as Bullion than the Price at which they are current; and whereas it has been deemed expedient at the Recommendation of the Right Honourable the Lords Committee of Privy Council for Coin, in order to prevent their being withdrawn from Circulation, that an additional Value, nearly proportionate to that at which they were first issued in relation to their intrinsic Value, be now assigned to them; The Governor and Company of the Bank of England do therefore hereby give Notice, that they have given Orders to their Cashiers and other Officers from henceforth (until a public Notice to the contrary of not less than Six Months shall have been given,) to receive all Bank Dollar Tokens tendered in Payment at the Bank, at the Rate of Five Shillings and Sixpence each, instead of Five Shillings, as heretofore; and to pay and to issue all such Bank Dollar Tokens as shall be paid or issued hereafter by them at the same Rate of Five Shillings and Sixpence each.

Robert Best, Secretary.
