

Moita on the 19th, and our Advanced Posts are this Day beyond Pinhanços.

The Militia under Colonels Wilson and Trant are at Fornos.

We have taken great Numbers of Prisoners, and the Enemy have continued to destroy their Carriages and their Cannon, and whatever would impede their Progress.

As the greatest Number of the Prisoners taken on the 19th had been sent out on foraging Parties towards the Mondego, and had been ordered to return to their Position on the Alva I conclude that the Enemy had intended to remain in it for some Days.

Soult has gone to Seville since the Fall of Badajos; and it is reported, that about Three Thousand French Troops had been seen on their March through Barcarota to the Southward.
