His Britannic Majesty's Ship Amphion, at the
 SIR, Island of Lissa, March 15, 1811.
 THE Frigate you commanded in the late Action with the British Squadron struck her Colours to His Britannic Majesty's Ship Amphion, under my Command; I was not able to take possession of you at that Moment, being engaged with the Bellona Frigate, but I considered you as my own, and as a Man of Honour you must have thought so yourself; I call on the Officers of your own Squadron, as well as those I have the Honour to command, to witness my Assertion. You know, Sir, I might have sunk you, had I not considered you as having surrendered, and so might Two of my Squadron also. By the Laws of War the Flora belongs to me, and the Purport of my present Truce is to demand her Restitution in the same State as when she struck.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
 (Signed) WILLIAM HOSTE.
 To Monsieur Peridier, Captain, commanding the Frigate Flora, of Liffina.

(Translation.)

On board His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Frigate
 SIR, gate the Danaë in the Roads of Liffina.
 IN consequence of the Wounds received by Monsieur Peridier, Commandant of His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Frigate La Flore, I have had the Honour to take upon me the Command of His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Ships, and cannot surrender to you His Majesty's Frigate under the Laws to which you refer, because she did not strike her Colours, as you are pleased to state. His Majesty's Frigate had her Flag cut by Shot. Her State not allowing her to continue any longer the Engagement, her Captain thought proper to withdraw from it. If you should not consider my Answer satisfactory, I request you will address yourself to my Government.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
 To Monsieur the Commandant of the Amphion Frigate, at Liffa.

His Britannic Majesty's Ship Amphion,
 SIR, Island of Liffa, March 19, 1811.
 THE Letter I had the Honour of receiving Today was neither signed nor dated (I presume through Mistake); I return it for its Signature.
 As Captain of the Danaë, you will not admit that the Flora struck her Colours in the late Action, nor did I call on you to do so. No, Sir; I call on Monsieur Peridier, the Commander of that Ship, as a Man of Honour, to declare whether she struck her Colours or not; and if Monsieur Peridier was so severely wounded as not to have Charge of the Ship at that Time, I look to his next in Command for an Answer to my Letter of the 15th; but I again assert, and ever shall maintain, that, by the Laws of War, his Frigate belongs to my Sovereign, and his Sword to me; the World will judge between us.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
 WILLIAM HOSTE.
 To the Captain commanding the Frigate Danaë.
