Downing-Street, June 15, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been this Day received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to His Lordship by Lord Wellington, dated Quinta de Gramicha, 20th May 1811.

WE invested Badajoz, on the 25th Instant, on the Right of the Guadiana; and the Ordnance and Stores for the Siege having been brought forward, we broke Ground last Night.

The Enemy have retired their Main Body upon Llerena, and hold the Advanced Posts of their Cavalry at Usagre. I enclose the Copy of the Report of Major-General the Honourable William Lumley of a very gallant Affair of the Cavalry near that Place on the 25th. The Major-General has reported that he received very great Assistance, upon this Occasion, from Major Holmes of the 3d Dragoon Guards, who was acting in the Department of the Adjutant-General, and from Lieutenant Heathcote of the Royal Dragoons, who was acting in the Department of the Quarter-Master-General, as well as from the Officers mentioned in his Report."

*Camp near Usagre, Two A. M.,
May 26, 1811.*

SIR,

AS will have been stated to you Yesterday verbally by the Officer I sent for that Purpose, I have the Honour to acquaint you, that having, as I before reported, driven the Enemy's Rear-Guard from Usagre, I occupied that Post on the Night of the 24th, by placing the Spanish Troops in Front of the Town, with their Tiradores well in advance towards the Enemy, and the Portuguese and British Cavalry with the Four Six-Pounders, in Rear of the Place; a small Brook, hollow and deep Ravine, and narrow Ditch being on this Side of the Town. About Six o'Clock Yesterday Morning it was reported to me that the Enemy's Cavalry were advancing in Force, and that there was Reason to believe they were accompanied by Artillery and Infantry; conceiving Reports might exaggerate the Fact, and not wishing to yield the Post to inferior Numbers, the 13th Light Dragoons and Colonel Otway's Portuguese Brigade of Cavalry were ordered across the Ravine to the Left of the Town, through the narrow Fords and Passes which had been previously reconnoitred, and Brigadier General Madden's Brigade of Portuguese Cavalry in like Manner to the Right, with Orders to retire by the same Passes if necessary. The heavy Brigade of British with the Guns being still in Reserve behind the Town.

Upon the nearer Approach of the Enemy, it was evident they were advancing with the whole of their Cavalry, and Five or Six heavy Guns (Eight Pounders): This being ascertained, and upon opening their first Gun, the Line was ordered to retire, which they did slowly, in excellent Order, and without Loss; the Spanish Troops filing on the main Road, through the Town which had been left open for them. A smart Cannonade now commenced from the opposite Heights, the Superiority of Numbers and Weight of Metal decidedly in Favour of the Enemy; but the superior Skill and well-directed Aim of Captain Lefevre and his Corps, with only Four Six-Pounders, was most pre-eminently conspicuous. The Enemy now committed a most daring Attempt, or rather an Error, for which they were severely punished. In spite of Two of our Guns, which bore directly for a few Paces on the Road, three of their chosen Regiments, 4th, 20th, and 26th, dashed through the Town and formed rapidly on the Flank of the 3d Dragoon Guards, which Corps, concealed by a small Hill, I verily believe they did not see, and in Front of the 4th Dragoons; themselves presenting two Fronts. A Charge of the 3d Dragoon Guards was at this Moment ordered on the Right, and a simultaneous Movement of the 4th Dragoons, directed most judiciously by Brigadier-General Long at the same Moment on the Left, where I had requested him to remain, decided the Point.

The Enemy wavered before our Cavalry reached them; but almost in the same Instant they were overturned, and apparently annihilated. The Affair took place so near the Brook and Bridge which immediately leads into the Town, and which I had forbid the Cavalry to enter, that it was impossible for them to pursue; it is difficult therefore to decide upon the Enemy's Loss; many severely wounded escaped through the Town, others threw themselves off their Horses, and escaped over the Brook; and through the Gardens, but besides Seventy-eight Prisoners, Twenty-nine lay dead on the Spot, many were also observed lying dead on the Bridge and in the first Street; and a Peasant reports, that from Thirty to Fifty were sent off wounded to their Rear on Horses and Cars.

I must not omit to state that a Portion of the Count de Penne Villamur's Spanish Cavalry gallantly supported the Charge on the Left of the 3d Dragoon Guards, as I am informed Brigadier-General Madden's Brigade did on the Right; but the Dust caused by the Charge was so great, I was myself unable to observe on that Flank.

I am positively assured from the Report of the Prisoners, that the Enemy had Thirteen Regiments of Cavalry in the Field, which, though not exceeding from Two Hundred to Three Hundred Men each, gave them so great a Superiority over the Force under my Orders, composed of Three Nations, many of them as yet but little known to each other in Cavalry Movements, that I feel fully justified in not placing a deep Ravine and Defile in my Rear, and attempting to defend the Town, which is only defensible by Infantry, from an Attack on the other Side.

I have the peculiar Satisfaction to add, that the Advantage gained has been almost bloodless on our Part, although occasionally for a few Seconds, of necessity exposed to the Range of Artillery and a Charge made against a Corps Elite of the Enemy, who, on the other Hand, visibly suffered from our Artillery, in addition to those lost in the Charge.

I feel myself under the highest Obligation to Brigadier-General Long for his zealous, well-timed, and active Exertions during the Day, as well as for his Assistance at all Times.

To Brigadier-General Loy, commanding the Spanish Cavalry (the Count de Penne Villamur being sick at Villa-Franca), and to Brigadier-General Madden, commanding the Portuguese Division, I am highly indebted for their Readiness in obeying, and Promptitude in executing my Orders; to the Honourable Colonel De Grey, commanding the British Brigade of heavy Cavalry; and to Colonel O'way, commanding the Portuguese Brigade, both under the Orders of Brigadier-General Long; to Colonel Lord Edward Somerset, commanding the 4th Dragoons; to Colonel Head, commanding the 13th Light Dragoons; to Major Weston, commanding the 3d Dragoon Guards (Sir G. Calcraft being sick at Villa Franca); and to Captain Lefevre of the Royal Horse Artillery, my very best Thanks are due, as well as to every Officer and Soldier, for the Promptitude and Steadiness with which every even retrograde Movement was performed in the Face of a superior Enemy.

The Advantage gained will not only in some Degree lessen the Enemy's superior Cavalry, but will, I trust, still further tend to render him fearful and timid in all his Movements.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
(Signed) W. LUMLEY, Major-General.

Admiralty-Office, June 15, 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Goodwin Keats K. B., to John Wilson Croker, Esq; dated on board the Milford, Bay of Cadix, 27th May 1811.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to transmit herewith, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of my Letter of this Date, and its Enclosures, to the Commander in Chief Admiral Sir Charles Cotton, Bart.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

R. G. KEATS.

His Majesty's Ship Milford, Bay of Cadix, 27th May 1811.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour herewith to transmit Two Letters which I have received from Captain Price of the Sabine, who this Morning sent in Three, and this Afternoon One, of the Enemy's small Privateers; and I have much Pleasure in calling your Attention to the judicious and spirited Manner in which the Enterprize, planned by Captain Price, and which led to the Capture of Three of the Privateers, was executed under the immediate Command of Lieutenant Usherwood, assisted by Lieutenant P. Finnuccane, Mr. T. Settle the Master, and several inferior volunteer Officers and Seamen of that Sloop.

I have, &c.

R. G. KEATS.

Admiral Sir C. Cotton, Bart., &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Sloop Sabine, off Sibilona, 27th May 1811.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, whilst cruising off Sibilona, in pursuance of your Orders, I deemed it practicable, on the Night of the 26th Instant, to take out the Five French Privateers lying in that Roadstead, which had so daringly annoyed the Commerce on this Coast; I accordingly anchored the Sabine as close as possible, and dispatched the Boats under the Command of Lieutenant Usherwood, assisted by Lieutenant Finnuccane, Mr. Settle Master, Warrant Officers, Midshipmen, and Volunteers from the Brig, who, I am happy to say, succeeded most admirably, each Boat taking a Privateer; though moored under the Battery and protected by their Crews, One Hundred and Twenty-five in Number, and a strong Guard of Soldiers. They are very fine Vessels, sail exceedingly fast, and had a Complement of Twenty-five Men each; the Prisoners taken were marched from Antwerp for that Duty.

Lieutenant Usherwood speaks most highly of all the Officers and Men on this Service; and I can no otherwise account for its being performed with so little Loss on our Side (as the Soldiers and Crew drew Two of the Vessels on shore, after taken, by a Hawser fast to the Lower Gudgeon, and were repulsed with Cutlasses,) than from the determined Bravery of the Officers and Men, and the Judgement with which Lieutenant Utherwood executed the Plan of Attack, who is an excellent Officer. I beg Leave to enclose a List of Wounded and Vessels captured.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE PRICE, Commander.

His Majesty's Sloop Sabine, off Sibiona, 27th May 1811.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inform you of the Capture of another of the Enemy's French Privateers and her Prize, in Company with His Majesty's Sloop Papillon, this Morning, between Rota and Sibiona. I cannot conclude without remarking the determined Obstinacy of her Crew, who would not surrender till the Papillon run her down, although under a heavy Fire of our Guns and Musketry.

I am happy to add it was in our Power to save all her Crew.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE PRICE.
