

Irish Catholic may fight the Battle of his Country unrestrained and unshackled under the Banners of one common God and one common Christianity.

Downing-Street, June 25, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Morning received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to His Lordship by Lieutenant-General Lord Viscount Wellington, dated Quinta de Granicha, 6th June 1811.

MY LORD,

WE have continued the Operations of the Siege of Badajoz with the utmost Activity since I addressed Your Lordship on the 30th Ultimo, and our Fire commenced on the Morning of the 2d Instant from Four Batteries on the Right of the Guadiana, directed against the Outwork of St. Christoval, and on the Enemy's Batteries in the Castle constructed to support that Outwork; and from Two Batteries on the Left of the Guadiana, directed against the Eastern Face of the Castle.

The Fire from these Batteries has continued ever since, and a Breach has been made in the Outworks of St. Christoval, which, however, is not yet practicable for Assault; and considerable Progress has been made in effecting a Breach on the Eastern Front of the Castle.

Notwithstanding that these Works have been carried on with great Rapidity, I am happy to say that they are themselves so complete, and the Communication from one to the other so well assured, that our Loss hitherto throughout the Siege has been very small. I am sorry to say that Lieutenant Hawker of the Royal Artillery, an Officer who has distinguished himself in these Operations, was killed this Morning.

The Enemy have hitherto made no Movement to disturb our Operations; but I understand that Three Battalions were moved from the Blockade of Cadiz in the last Days of May; and I have received a Report, that the Battalions of the 9th Corps, destined to reinforce the Army of the South, were to arrive at Cordova on the 5th or 6th of this Month.

The Army of Portugal likewise broke up from the Tormes on the 3d Instant, and their first March was in the Direction of the Passage of the Tagus.

I have received a Letter from Mr. Wellesley of the 1st Instant, from which I learn that General Suchet had invested Tarragona.

I have, &c.

(Signed) WELLINGTON.
