THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent ; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously :

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgesses, and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, in Common Council assembled.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgesses, and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to repeat to Your Royal Highness the Assurance of our unalterable Attachment to our revered Sovereign and his illustrious House.

While we deplore the great national Calamity with which the Hand of Providence has visited these Kingdoms, we are at a loss for Terms to express our Admiration of the Line of Conduct adopted by Your Royal Highness since its Commencement, a Conduct which unites all the filial Delicacy due to the best of Sovereigns and of Fathers with the inviolable Adherence to the Principles of our glorious Constitution, so essential to the Prosperity of this mighty Empire.

We beg to offer our sincere Acknowledgements to Your Royal Highness for the Re-appointment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York to the important Office of Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Army ; an Event called for with the same Unanimity by the ardent Wishes of the People, as by the Prayers of those gallant Soldiers who, under his Auspices, have entitled themselves to the Gratitude of their Country, and excited the Admiration of Europe.

We cannot conclude without expressing our Conviction, that should it still seem good to an all-wise but inscrutable Providence to withhold the Restoration of our gracious Sovereign to the perfect Enjoyment of Health, we may place the most entire Reliance on the Wisdom, the Firmness, and the Dignity of Your Royal Highness's Government ; and considering the past as an Earnest of the future, we may with humble Confidence look forward to a Continuation of those splendid Triumphs which have revived the ancient military Renown of the British Nations, and to an uninterrupted Enjoyment of those domestic Blessings which have so long been the envied Inheritance of the Inhabitants of this Empire.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the 6th Day of July, 'in the Year of our Lord 1811.

Edward Hale Gibbons, Mayor.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant]

Whitehall, August 6, 1811.
