AT the Court at Whitehall, the 1st of October 1811,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council,

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council; in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Friday the Fourth Day of this instant October, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Twelfth Day of November next;

Foreign-Office, Downing-Street, October 1, 1811.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, Acting in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Henry Wellesley to be His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand VII.; and Charles Vaughan, Esq; to be His Majesty's Secretary of Embassy in Spain.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, Acting in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, has also been pleased to appoint Thomas Sydenham, Esq; to reside at the Seat of the Provisional Government of Portugal as His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, during the Absence of Charles Stuart, Esq; who has been named His Majesty's First Commissioner in Spanish America.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, Acting in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, has also been pleased to appoint the Reverend R. M. Miller, B. A. to be Resident Chaplain at Lisbon.

Admiralty-Office, October 1, 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Browne, of His Majesty's Ship the Hermes, addressed to Admiral Sir Roger Curtis, and transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Hermes, Dungeness Roads; September 26, 1811.

SIR,
I HAVE the Honour to report to you, that on the Morning of the 24th Instant, close in with Cape Le Heve, His Majesty's Ship Hermes recaptured the Prussian Brig Anna Maria, from Lisbon for London, and would most certainly have taken the Privateer, had not the Contiguity to his own Coast favoured his Escape by half an Hour's sail, as the Hermes was nearing him fast; but the Wind blowing strong directly on Shore, prevented further Pursuit. I also beg to acquaint you, that the strong westerly Winds having driven me from my Station, and prevented my reaching St. Helens, I bore up for this Anchorage; and in my Way hither, when off Beachy Head, I discovered a large Lugger in the midst of a Number of English Vessels, several of which she must have soon captured, and One of which she had taken before seen by the Hermes. She was instantly pursued, and in Two Hours' Time, after sustaining a good Deal of Firing, which wounded some of his Crew, and damaged her Sails, she struck; but in the Act of bringing to, to take Possession of her, the Main Topsail Yard broke in the Slings, and the Fore-Sail of the Hermes split from the Violence of the Wind, which the Privateer immediately took the Advantage of; and although in a Situation under the Lee when she surrendered, that would have enabled me to have totally destroyed her, he had the Temerity to endeavour to escape, by making sail on the opposite Tack; but by the great Exertion of my Officers, the Ship was wore, and as much Sail set as enabled me to again come up with him, although he had got Two Miles from us on the Weather Bow, when feeling myself justified after his Conduct not to give him an Opportunity of again escaping, I determined to run him alongside, notwithstanding it blew a Gale of Wind with a very heavy Sea, in doing which he again endeavoured to escape, by crossing our Hawse, when in one Instant a heavy Sea instantly threw him under the Bottom of His Majesty's Ship, and I lament to say, that only Twelve Men out of Fifty-one were saved, it being impossible to hoist a Boat out. It appears she was named La Mouche, of Boulogne, had sailed the Evening before, was commanded by Monsieur Gageux, mounted Fourteen Carriage Guns, Twelve and Six Pounders, was One Hundred and Eighty Tons, and had a Complement of Sixty-one Men, Ten of whom were put on board his Prize. I have the Satisfaction to state, that not one of the Crew of the Prize were taken on board the Privateer: she was a Ship from the West Indies, but her Name I could not learn.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) PHILIP BROWNE.

To Admiral Sir Roger Curtis, Bart.
Portsmouth.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-Maker, Watch-Maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be pub-lately sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.
