

nance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel, during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of Saint Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of Saint Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. Bar Iron, White and Tarred Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments within the same season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Foreign Office, 21st January 1812.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to cause it to be signified, by the Marquess Wellesley, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Friendly Powers, residing at this Court, that the necessary measures have been taken, by the command of His Royal Highness, acting in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the blockade of the Islands of Corfu, Fano, and Paxo; and of Perga, on the coast of Albania; and that, from this time, all the measures authorized by the law of nations, will be adopted and executed, with respect to all vessels which may attempt to violate the said blockade.

War-Office, 18th January, 1812.

HIS Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been graciously pleased to approve of His Majesty's 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, being permitted to inscribe on their colours and appointments, the words Corunna and Barrosa, in consequence of the distinguished gallantry displayed by the 1st and 3d battalions of that corps, in the action fought in front of Corunna, on the 16th January 1809, and by a detachment of the 2d battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, in the battle of Barrosa, on the 5th March 1811.

War-Office, January 21, 1812.
