

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the parish officers of Mere.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Wednesday, the 22d inst. the body of Margaret Haxtable, a child of about nine years of age, belonging to the village of Dodbrooke, in the county of Devon, (who had been sent by its parents on the Monday preceding to a shoemaker's in that village,) was found murdered in a most inhuman manner, in a ditch within a field about half a mile from the said village;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the parish of Woodbigh to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday, the 19th inst. about seven o'clock in the evening, the dressing shops and warehouses belonging to Messrs. Oates, Wood, and Smithson, at Oatlands, near Woodhouse Carr, Leeds, was discovered to be on fire, by which a great part of the building was consumed, and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons:

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted.) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the said Messrs. Oates, Wood, and Smithson.

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

J. W. CROKER.

*Navv Pay-Office, London,
January 28, 1812.*

TAKE notice, that, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the forty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more effectually manning His Majesty's Navy during the present War, &c. &c." I do hereby revoke the Licence granted to Henry Adams, of No. 5, Ordnance-Row, Portsea, on the 3d day of July 1810, to act as an Agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships, which Licence is withdrawn by me on the ground of his having abused the trust reposed in him.

GEORGE ROSE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to parliament in the present session, for leave to bring in a bill for altering and enlarging the powers of two acts of His present Majesty for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, watering, and watching such part of the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, as lies on the west side of Tottenham Court Road, and that it is proposed by the said bill to put such part of Tottenham Court Road as extends from the north west corner of Great Russell Street, in the parish of St. Giles's in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex, to the New Road, in the said parish of St. Pancras, northward; and the foot way on the east side of the said road lying in the several parishes of St. Giles's and St. Pancras aforesaid; under the care and management of the commissioners for putting the said two acts in execution, so far as relates to paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the said road, and the foot way on the east side thereof.

*J. Aug. Bonney, Solicitor for the said bill.
Percy Street, Jan. 25, 1812.*

Office of Ordnance, January 15, 1812.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 3d day of February next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of Bedding for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable at the expiration of one year at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Bedding;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 3d day of February, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither
