

and beat him in a most barbarous manner;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said robbery and outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who knocked down the said James Garrett) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the parish officers of Merc.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Wednesday, the 22d inst. the body of Margaret Haxtable, a child of about nine years of age, belonging to the village of Dodbroke, in the county of Devon, (who had been sent by its parents on the Monday preceding to a shoemaker's in that village,) was found murdered in a most inhuman manner, in a ditch within a field about half a mile from the said village;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the parish of Woodbigh to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday, the 19th inst. about seven o'clock in the evening, the dressing shops and warehouses belonging to Messrs. Oates, Wood, and Smithson, at Oaklands, near Woodhouse Carr, Leeds, was discovered to be on fire, by which a great part of the building was consumed, and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons:

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted.) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the said Messrs. Oates, Wood, and Smithson.

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

J. W. CROKER.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to parliament in the present session, for leave to bring in a bill for altering and enlarging the powers of two acts of His present Majesty for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, watering, and watching such part of the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, as lies on the west side of Tottenham Court Road, and that it is proposed by the said bill to put such part of Tottenham Court Road as extends from the north west corner of Great Russell Street, in the parish of St. Giles's in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex, to the New Road, in the said parish of St. Pancras, northward; and the foot way on the east side of the said road lying in the several parishes of St. Giles's and St. Pancras aforesaid, under the care and management of the commissioners for putting the said two acts in execution, so far as relates to paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the said road, and the foot way on the east side thereof.

J. Aug. Bonney, Solicitor for the said bill.
Perey Street, Jan. 25, 1812.

Transport-Office, January 30, 1812.

THE Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, for taking Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, do hereby give notice, that they will be ready at this Office, on Tuesday the 11th February 1812, to receive sealed tenders, and treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying, for twelve months certain,

Dutch Caps for the Service of Prisoners of War.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, personally attend. Each tender must be accompanied by a letter from two respectable persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 300l. for the due performance of the contract.

Further particulars may be known by applying at this Office; and samples seen at the Storekeeper-General's, Duke-Street, Westminster.

Alex. McLeay, Secretary.
