

hour of eleven at night, a robbery was committed on the person of James Garrett, of Mere, in the county of Wilts, labourer, on the public road between Mere and Shaftesbury, from whose pocket a ten pounds note and some silver were forcibly taken by some villains, who also knocked him down and beat him in a most barbarous manner;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said robbery and outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who knocked down the said James Garrett) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the parish officers of Mere.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Wednesday, the 22d inst. the body of Margaret Haxtable, a child of about nine years of age, belonging to the village of Dodbroke, in the county of Devon, (who had been sent by its parents on the Monday preceding to a shoemaker's in that village,) was found murdered in a most inhuman manner, in a ditch within a field about half a mile from the said village;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the parish of Woodbigh to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday, the 19th inst. about seven o'clock in the evening, the dressing shops and warehouses belonging to Messrs. Oates, Wood, and Smithson, at Oatlands, near Woodhouse Carr, Leeds, was discovered to be on fire, by which a great part of the building was consumed, and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons:

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted.) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the said Messrs. Oates, Wood, and Smithson.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure, in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, and merchandize, under the joint lock of the Crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and that no goods, wares, or merchandize, so enumerated or described in the said table marked (E), shall be permitted to be so lodged or secured unless and until it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, that the said warehouse or warehouses are complete, fit, and proper in every respect, for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same may be safely and securely deposited; and such goods, wares, and merchandize, so lodged and secured in such warehouses, shall in all other respects be subject and liable to the rules, regulations, and restrictions in the said Act contained: And whereas the table marked (E), above referred to, is in the words following, viz.
