

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday, February 22, to Tuesday, February 25, 1812.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 24th of January 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intitled "An act for further continuing, until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, an act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, for permitting the importation into Great Britain of hides and other articles in foreign ships," it is enacted that an act, made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intitled "An act for permitting, until the fifth day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the importation of hides, calf-skins, horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), in foreign ships, on payment of the like duties as if imported in British or Irish ships;" which by an act, made in the forty-fifth year of His present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to goat-skins imported in foreign ships; and which was further continued by an act made in the forty-seventh year of his present Majesty, until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, should be and the same was thereby further continued until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace: And whereas by the said acts it is lawful for His Majesty, by his order in council from time to time, when and as often as it may be judged expedient, to permit any hides, pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins dressed or undressed, horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also goat-skins, to be imported in any foreign ship or vessel, and to be admitted to entry in any port or place in the United Kingdom, on payment of such and the like duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel; any thing contained in any act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's privy council, is thereupon pleased, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said above-recited act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months, from the eighth day of February next, the importation of hides, or pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins, dressed or undressed horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also of goat-skins, dressed or undressed, in any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded; and that on the arrival at any port of the United Kingdom of any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded, with any of the articles abovementioned, the said goods shall be admitted to entry on payment of the same duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

MEMORANDUM.

The appointment of Dispenser of Medicines John Dewey to be Hospital-Mate for general service, and the promotion of Lieutenant George Llewellyn to be Captain in the 12th Foot, without purchase, and of Cornet Richard Beauchamp to be Lieutenant, by purchase, in the 16th Light Dragoons, vice Hay, promoted in the 60th Foot, as stated in the Gazettes of the 22d October 1811, 7th January, and 18th February 1812, have not taken place.

Whitehall, February 22, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about half-past one o'clock of the morning of the 13th instant, a large-decked lugger, laden with contraband goods, having been discovered in the Downs, and chased by the boats of the Lively cutter, in the service of the Revenue of Excise, and having been boarded by one of the said boats, the crew of the lugger attacked the officer and cutter's men, and, after beating them severely, took a pistol from one of them, and fired it at him, wounded him in the head, and threw him overboard.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons who have been guilty of this outrageous conduct, is hereby pleased, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the cutter's man, as stated) who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by their Secretary upon the conviction.

By order of the Board,

THOS. BURTON, Secretary.

Whitehall, February 22, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the evening of Sunday the 9th of this month, a stack of hay, the property of Thomas Cumberland, of the parish of Sheepshead, in the county of Leicester, Farmer and Grazier, was nearly consumed by fire; and whereas there is strong ground for believing that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-minded persons who are unknown, the said Thomas Cumberland having recently received an anonymous letter threatening to destroy his cattle;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the above-mentioned felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said haystack on fire) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by applying to the County Fire-Office, Southampton-Street, Strand.

Navy-Office, February 24, 1812.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of Half-Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st July to the 31st December 1811, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that behalf, these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 9th March, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Tuesday the 10th and Wednesday the 11th March, to Lieutenants and their Attornies.

On Thursday the 12th March, to Masters and Surgeons and their Attornies.

After which the list will be recalled the first and third Wednesdays in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their Half-Pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance, required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where the Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the Half-Pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near to the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" notice is hereby further given, that the Half-Pay, ending the 31st day of December 1811, will commence paying on the 9th March; and all persons desirous of having their Half-Pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

J. W. CROKER.

Office of Ordnance, February 14, 1812.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 2d day of March next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the raising of River Ballast, by means of a steam engine, for the service of the Royal Engineer Department at Woolwich, and for the term of two years, at per ton.

The ballast must consist of gravel procured from the River near the Royal Arsenal, and be delivered into Ordnance barges alongside the engine.

The daily supply required will be from 300 to 600 tons, and the steam engine must commence working within three weeks from the date of the proposal being accepted.

Further particulars may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for River Ballast;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 2d day of March, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Westermann, as Trustees in Mr. Henrich Rötgers's trust estate, may summon by proclama, sub poena preclusi et perpetui silentii, all the known and unknown Creditors of Mr. Henrich Rötgers, residing in European or American territories, to come forward with their demands, and to enter and prove their claims, in person, or by their Attornies, before the said Trustees, previous to the expiration of the period hereinafter limited, that is to say, within one year and six weeks from the period when this proclama shall have been recorded in the Upper Court of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and published three times consecutively in the London Gazette; and all such known or unknown Creditors as reside in any of the West India islands or colonies, shall come forward with their claims, in person or by their attornies, before the said Trustees, within three months from the date of this proclama being recorded in the Superior and Inferior Courts of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and notice thereof being published in the St. Croix and St. Thomas Gazettes three times consecutively; and the aforesaid Trustees shall further be bound to cause this grant to be produced in the Royal and the Loan Commissions Book-keeper's Offices to the said islands, and procure a certificate of this being complied with; in failure of which, this proclama shall not be valid against any claims or prerogatives of His Majesty; and all persons concerned are to take notice thereof, and to conduct themselves accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal, Government House, Saint Thomas, the 20th of August 1811.

By His Excellency's command,

C. G. FLEISCHER, Secretary.

In conformity with the foregoing licence, and with the warning therein mentioned, are hereby summoned, sub poena preclusi et perpetui silentii, all and every one who believe to have any demand on Mr. Henrich Rötgers's trust estate, with their demands, to come forward and to prove the same for the undersigned Trustees as before mentioned, within the limited time.—The sessions will be held in the store of the said Mr. Rötgers, every second and fourth Tuesday, at Ten o'Clock, A. M. until this proclama, as far as concerns the islands St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, is expired; but after that period, only every first Tuesday in the following months, at the same time and place.—St. Thomas, 20th August 1811.

S. H. C. STAKEMANN, F. WESTERMANN, as Trustees in Mr. Henrich Rötgers's trust estate.

ALL persons having any claim or demand on the Estate of the late H. Francis De Cort, of Brewer-Street, Golden-Square, Westminster, deceased, are hereby desired to send the same to Mr. J. L.
