

length of service can transfer; in the second case, where no further service is intended, the pension shall remain at five shillings a day as above-mentioned."

Sixthly.—"That length of service and meritorious conduct shall render Chaplains eligible to all the Chaplaincies of all Naval establishments whatever, the disposal of which shall, or may be, left to the consideration of the Board of Admiralty; and that no other Clergyman shall be eligible to any of those pieces of preferment, than a Navy Chaplain; and that the presentation to any of those pieces of preferment, whose emoluments may amount to four hundred pounds per annum, shall cause the half-pay of the respective Chaplains to cease, as is provided by law in the case of the divided Living of Simonbourn."

Seventhly.—"That the pay of a Chaplain, while in actual service, shall be according to the following rate, viz.

"One hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and the established compensation of 11l. 8s. a year for a servant, in each rate, and to have a cabin allotted for him, in the ward-room, or gun-room, where he is to mess with the Lieutenants and to be rated for victuals: and when the Chaplain shall be willing to act as Schoolmaster, he shall be entitled to the bounty of twenty pounds a year, granted by her late Majesty Queen Anne, by her Order in Council, of the 21st April 1702, provided he shall pass an examination before the Lieutenant-Governor, Professor, and Preceptor of the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, instead of at the Trinity House, as required by the above-mentioned Order in Council; and he shall be further entitled to five pounds per annum, to be paid to him by every young Midshipman and Volunteer of the first class, as a remuneration for his education, the same to be stopped out of the said young Gentlemen's pay."

Eighthly.—"That a Chaplain-General shall be appointed, with such emoluments as may be deemed proper by the Board of Admiralty, to whom all applications for appointments shall be made, or will be referred, and all regulations entrusted, relating to the establishment of Chaplains for the Royal Navy, in the same manner as is practised with regard to Army Chaplains."

Ninthly.—"That no warrant will be granted by the Board of Admiralty, to any candidate for an appointment, unless recommended by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London, through the Chaplain-General, as in every way properly qualified."

Tenthly.—"That Chaplains now serving in the Navy, who may upon due examination be deemed proper to be continued; shall be allowed the time they may have served, as part (not exceeding one half) of that required to entitle them to the pension or half-pay."

By command of their Lordships,
J. W. CROKER.

N. B. The Rev. Archdeacon John Owen, has been appointed Chaplain-General to the Fleet, to whom all letters are to be addressed, under cover to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

War-Office, March 21, 1812.

THE ANNUAL ARMY LIST for 1812; with an Index, is in course of publication, and may be had of T. Egerton, Military Library, Whitehall.

IN pursuance of Orders of the Hon. the House of Commons, dated the 18th of February and 19th of March 1812, notice is hereby given, that application is making to Parliament for a bill for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching that part of the Kent-Street-Road which leads from Kent-Street End unto the Bridge next immediately below the Green Man Turnpike, situated within the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey; and certain public streets, squares, lanes, passages, and places communicating therewith respectively, situated within the same parish, or within the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint Mary Newington, adjoining thereto, in the same county; and for removing and preventing encroachments, nuisances, and annoyances thereon.

Southwark, March 21, 1812.

Navy Post-Office, London,
March 21, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 43rd year of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the 45th year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement of Seamen, and better and more effectually manning His Majesty's Navy during the present War, &c. &c." I do hereby revoke the licence granted to Mr. Asher Nathan, of No. 30, George-Street, Plymouth, on the 29th day of January 1810, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money for and in respect of the services of petty officers, seamen, and others employed in any of His Majesty's ships, which licence is withdrawn by me on the ground of his having quitted his residence without having given the notice required by law, whereby I have been prevented from receiving a satisfactory justification from him in a matter of complaint made against him.

GEORGE ROSH.

CONTRACTS FOR PITCH AND TAR.

Navy-Office, March 18, 1812.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 25th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Stockholm or Archangel Pitch and Tar to His Majesty's Dock-Yards.

The quantities agreed for to be delivered in the River and at Portsmouth in six weeks; and at Plymouth in two months from the time of agreement.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office. No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 50l. per 100 barrels.
