NEW ESTABLISHMENT OF PAY AND HALF-PAY FOR NAVY CHAPLAINS.

Admiralty-Office, March 9, 1812.

THE Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, by His Order in Council of the 4th instant, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to direct, that the following regulations, in respect to the half-pay or pension to be allowed to Chaplains of His Majesty's Fleet, after long and meritorious service, as well as the pay and allowances during the period of such servitude, shall be established in future, viz.

First.—“ That every ship in His Majesty's Navy, from a first to a fifth rate inclusive, shall be allowed a Chaplain on her establishment.”

Secondly.—“ That every Chaplain after eight years of actual sea service, (or if in a guard-ship, ten years,) during which period he shall not have been absent from his duty six weeks at any one time, except by special leave from the Board of Admiralty, and who shall produce certificates of good conduct and moral behaviour from the Captains he may have served under, shall be entitled to a pension in the nature of half-pay; but no Chaplain to be entitled to half-pay or pension if he shall accept any preferment with cure of souls during the term of his required service at sea.”

Thirdly.—“ That the amount of this pension or half-pay to each Chaplain shall be five shillings per day.”

Fourthly.—“ That if in the event of a peace, or from other circumstances not depending on himself, a Chaplain shall not have been able to complete the full servitude of eight years, a pension may be conferred by the Board of Admiralty, according to a scale to be determined on, proportionate to the term of service; in no case, however, to be granted for less than three years service at sea.”

Fifthly.—“ That on the expiration of the period of eight (or ten) years, as the case may be, every Chaplain shall give notice in writing, whether it is his intention to continue to serve or not; in the first case, every year's additional service shall entitle him, when placed on the pension list, to receive at the rate of sixpence a day in addition to the pension which his eight (or ten) years servitude may have entitled him to, until the aggregate rate amounts to ten shillings a day, being the greatest pension which any length of service can confer; in the second case, where no further service is intended, the pension shall remain at five shillings a day as above-mentioned.”

Sixthly.—“ That length of service and meritorious conduct shall render Chaplains eligible to all the Chaplaincies of all Naval establishments whatever, the disposal of which shall, or may be, left to the consideration of the Board of Admiralty; and that no other Clergyman shall be eligible to any of those pieces of preferment, than a Navy Chaplain; and that the presentation to any of those pieces of preferment, whose emoluments may amount to four hundred pounds per annum, shall cause the half-pay of the respective Chaplains to cease, as is provided by law in the case of the divided Living of Simonbourn.”

Seventhly.—“ That the pay of a Chaplain, while in actual service, shall be according to the following rate, viz.

“ One hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and the established compensation of 11l. 8s. a year for a servant, in each rate, and to have a cabin allotted for him, in the ward-room, or gun-room, where he is to mess with the Lieutenants and to be rated for victuals: and when the Chaplain shall be willing to act as Schoolmaster, he shall be entitled to the bounty of twenty pounds a year, granted by her late Majesty Queen Anne, by her Order in Council, of the 21st April 1702, provided he shall pass an examination before the Lieutenant-Governor, Professor, and Preceptor of the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, instead of at the Trinity House, as required by the above-mentioned Order in Council; and he shall be further entitled to five pounds per annum, to be paid to him by every young Midshipman and Volunteer of the first class, as a remuneration for his education, the same to be stopped out of the said young Gentlemen's pay."

Eighthly.—"That a Chaplain-General shall be appointed, with such emoluments as may be deemed proper by the Board of Admiralty, to whom all applications for appointments shall be made, or will be referred, and all regulations entrusted, relating to the establishment of Chaplains for the Royal Navy, in the same manner as is practised with regard to Army Chaplains."

Ninthly.—"That no warrant will be granted by the Board of Admiralty, to any candidate for an appointment, unless recommended by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London, through the Chaplain-General, as in every way properly qualified."

Tenthly.—"That Chaplains now serving in the Navy, who may upon due examination be deemed proper to be continued, shall be allowed the time they may have served, as part (not exceeding one half) of that required to entitle them to the pension or half-pay."
