Navy Pay-Office, 1812!

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, forty-ninth George the Third, chap. 123, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to Mathew Rowe, of No. 10, Wickham-Street, Portsea, on the 17th day of August 1809, to act as an agent in the receipt of wages, pay, prize and bounty-money for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me on the ground of his having abused the trust reposed in him, by not duly accounting to John Peters, late of His Majesty's ship Wolverine, for prize-money received on his account by the said Mathew Rowe.

GEORGE ROSE.

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING A FRIGATE AT LIVERPOOL.

Navy-Office, May 20, 1812.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 11th of June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for building at Liverpool,

A Frigate to carry 36 Guns.

The tenders must contain a price for building the ship of oak timber, and also a price for building her of fir timber.

A draft of the ship, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 2000l. for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, May 28, 1812.
