ADISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at Earl Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship, by General Earl of Wellington, dated Rueda, July 7, 1812.

THE army broke up from the encampment on the Guarena on the morning of the 1st inst. and the enemy having retired from Alaejos, encamped on the Trabancos, with the advanced-guard at La Nava del Rey. Having heard that the enemy had destroyed the bridge of Tordesillas, our advanced-guard crossed the Zapardiel, and moved upon Rueda, on the morning of the 2d, supported by the left of the army, while the right and centre moved towards Medina del Campo.

The enemy, however, had not destroyed the bridge over the Douro, as reported; and the main body of the army had retired upon Tordesillas, leaving the rear-guard at Rueda.
