

Exeter, June 24, 1812.

BRICE's and BAKER's Fly Waggon, to and from Bath, Bristol, Exeter, and the intermediate places, continue to set out from the Bell Inn, Thomas-Street, and White Lion, Bristol, through Taunton, Wellington, and Callumpton, and arrive at their Warehouse, Castle-Street, Exeter, every day, and return on the same day through the above-mentioned places.

The said waggon meet Mr. John Ashmore's Gloucester, Worcester, Brooms Grove, and Birmingham waggon, by which goods are immediately forwarded to Manchester, and all parts of the north.

Goods for Wells, Frome, Shepton-Mallett, and the neighbourhood, are regularly forwarded from Taunton, by Martin, every Monday and Thursday.

Goods for Ilminster, Crewkerne, Hazelbury, Yeovil, Sherborne, Wincanton, Bruton, Meare, Somerton, Langport, and Castle-Cary, are duly forwarded by their own waggon.

Goods and baggage for Plymouth, Falmouth, and all parts of Cornwall, are daily forwarded from Exeter, by Mr. Russell's waggon, to his Warehouse, Frankfort-Place, Plymouth, and Market-Place, Falmouth, and to Lyme, Sidmouth, Exmouth, Dawlish, Teignmouth, Dartmouth, and all other places in Devonshire, by the proper Carriers.

The Proprietors give public notice, that they will not hold themselves answerable or accountable for any article, unless the same shall be entered by the bookkeeper or landlord, or marked as received by one of them on the book or paper of the porter, or other person, who may deliver it.

Not more than 5*l.* will be paid for any article whatever of less weight than a quarter of a hundred, (28*lb.*) nor more than after the rate of 20*l.* per hundred weight for any package of a greater weight, unless it shall have been booked as of greater value, and paid, or agreed to be paid for, at the rate of 6*l.* for every ten pounds value, in addition to the common charge of carriage.

No laces, silks, ribbons, muslins, gauze, cambrics, lawns, maps, pictures, prints, umbrellas, chairs, or other furniture, will be paid for in any degree, if damaged in the carriage, unless packed in proper boxes or cases.

Glass, china, or other hazardous goods, will not be paid for if broken in carriage.

The owners of all goods not paying, or agreeing to pay the extra prices, will be considered as taking the extra risks on themselves.

All goods which shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried will be considered as general liens, and subject not only to the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also to the general balance due from the respective owners to the proprietors of the said carriages.

Goods suffered to remain in any of their warehouses more than 48 hours after their arrival will be at the sole risk of the respective owners thereof.

Carriages drawn at the end of the waggon will be charged according to weight; but the proprietors will not be answerable for any damage in consequence.

Dogs, horses, &c. lost, hurt, or killed, will not be accounted for.

JAMES BRICE, Taunton.
JOHN BRICE, Cullompton.
THO. BAKER, Exeter.
