Published by Authority.

From Saturday, August 1, to Tuesday, August 4, 1812.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 31st of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that no ships or vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects be permitted to enter and clear out for any of the ports within the territories of the United States of America, until further order: And His Royal Highness is further pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, to order, that a general embargo or stop be made of all ships and vessels whatsoever, belonging to the citizens of the United States of America, now within, or which shall hereafter come into any of the ports, harbours, or roads, within any part of His Majesty's dominions, together with all persons and effects on board all such ships and vessels; and that the Commanders of His Majesty's ships of war and privateers do detain and bring into port all ships and vessels belonging to the citizens of the United States of America, or bearing the flag of the said United States, except such as may be furnished with British licences, which vessels are allowed to proceed according to the tenor of the said licences; but that the utmost care be taken for the preservation of all and every part of the cargoes on board any of the said ships or vessels, so that no damage or embezzlement whatever be sustained; and the Commanders of His Majesty's ships of war and privateers are hereby instructed to detain and bring into port every such ship and vessel accordingly, except such as are above excepted: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, for the better protection of the trade of the United Kingdom during the present hostilities with France; a power is vested in Us to grant licence to vessels to sail without convoy, and We have, in pursuance of the said Act, granted sundry licences accordingly; and whereas we see fit to revoke certain of these licences, as hereinafter specified, We do hereby revoke and declare null and void, and of no effect, all licences granted by Us to any ship or vessel to sail without convoy to any port or place of North America, Newfoundland, the West Indies, or the Gulph of Mexico, which ship or vessel shall not have cleared out before this revocation shall be known to the collector or other officer of the customs of the port at which such ship or vessel shall be.

Given under Our hands and the seal of the Office of Admiralty, the 31st of July 1812.

(Signed)

MELVILLE.
WM. DOMETT.
GEO. J. HOPF.

To all whom it may concern.

By command of their Lordships,
J. W. CROKER.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, August 4, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at Lord Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship by General the Earl of Wellington, dated Rueda, July 14, 1812.

GENERAL Bonnet joined the enemy on the evening of the 7th instant, and the army have since extended to their right as far as Toro, where
