AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS in virtue of powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His reign, cap. 103, which Act was, by two other Acts, viz. forty-third Geo. 3, cap. 12, and forty-fourth Geo. 3, cap. 4, further continued until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, to make certain regulations for the trade and commerce to and from the isle of Malta:

And whereas it is expedient that further regulations for the said trade and commerce should now be made;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to revoke the said Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, so far as relates to the trade and commerce carried on between the ports of the United Kingdom and the said isle of Malta, and its dependencies:

Provided nevertheless, that the revocation of the said Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall not be taken to revive any former Order of Council relating to the trade and commerce of Malta, which had been revoked by the said Order.

And His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is further pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of August next, no goods or commodities whatsoever shall be exported from any port of the United Kingdom to the said isle of Malta, or its dependencies, in any other than British ships or vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, or in vessels condemned as lawful prize in the isle of Malta, and registered as the law directs, and navigated by one-fourth of British or Maltese subjects, or natives of the said isle or its dependencies; and in like manner that, from and after the first day of October next, no goods or commodities whatsoever shall be exported from the said isle of Malta, or its dependencies, to any port of the United Kingdom, in any other than British ships or vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, or in ships or vessels condemned as lawful prize in the isle of Malta, and registered as the law directs, and navigated by one-fourth of British or Maltese subjects, or natives of the said isle or its dependencies, or in any ship or vessel belonging to any person or persons whatsoever, and of whatsoever description, and however navigated, to which His Majesty may be graciously pleased to grant His royal licence or authority for that purpose.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the sixth day of January last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this Kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do at any time, for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores,
