

October 13, 1812.

TAKE Notice, that the Partnership lately subsisting between Christopher Idle, John Idle, Thomas Coates, and George Idle, under the firm of Christopher Idle, Brother, and Company, was this day dissolved, as to the said Christopher Idle, by mutual consent; and all debts owing by or to the said late firm of Christopher Idle, Brother, and Company, will be liquidated by the remaining Partners, who will from this day carry on the said business, under the firm of Idles, Coates, and Co.

Christopher Idle.
John Idle.
Thomas Coates.
George Idle.

IF William Rogers, who lived as footman with William Hudson, Esq. at Woodford, in Essex, from 1734 to 1788, and afterwards lived as an helper in the stables of Mr. Bass, the Castle Inn, Woodford, will apply to Mr. Edge, in King's-Bench-Walks, in the Temple, he will hear of something to his advantage, or if any person shall give information to Mr. Edge, where the said William Rogers resides, or of his death, the person furnishing the same shall be rewarded for his or her trouble.—The said William Rogers was about 20 years of age when he left Mr. Hudson's service, and it is supposed he some time afterwards went to sea.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY authority obtained from His Excellency Robert Gordon, Esq. Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Colony Berbice and its Dependencies, Vice-Admiral and President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. granted upon a petition presented by John Layfield, qq. Thomas Gudgeon, versus Simon Fraser (Kilmorack), under date of 16th December 1811;

I, the undersigned First Marshal of both the Honourable Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell at public execution sale, in presence of two Councillors' Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of April 1813 (the precise day to be notified through the Gazette of this colony), the cotton estate called Kilmorack, situated on the Correntine Coast, the property of the aforesaid Simon Fraser, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory thereof, now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the before-mentioned estate or cotton plantation called Kilmorack, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring their reasons for such opposition in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this colony, and further dealt with according to style and custom in such cases.—Berbice, the 1st March 1812.
