By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION.

For further continuing the Permission to all Common Brewers, or Retailers of Beer or Ale, to make use of Sugar in brewing Beer in Great Britain.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow the use of sugar in brewing beer in Great Britain," it was enacted, that in case His Majesty at any time after the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, should in His Royal discretion judge it to be for the benefit and advantage of His kingdom to permit common brewers, or retailers of beer or ale, to make use of brown or Muscovado sugar in the brewing or making of beer, ale, or worts, then and in such case it should and might be lawful to and for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and suffer all common brewers and retailers of beer, ale, or worts in Great Britain, (but not any particular common brewers or retailers of beer, ale, or worts,) at any time of times, not less than thirty days from the date of such Proclamation, to make use of brown or Muscovado sugar in the brewing or making of beer, ale, or worts, until forty days after the then next meeting of Parliament, under, subject, and according to the rules, regulations, restrictions, and provisions, fines, penalties, and forfeitures contained and provided in and by the said Act: And whereas We, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, do judge it for the benefit and advantage of His kingdom to grant the permission aforementioned, We are thereupon pleased by this Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to permit and suffer, and do hereby permit and suffer, all common brewers and retailers of beer, ale, or worts in Great Britain, at any time or times, not less than thirty days from the date of this Proclamation, to make use of brown or Muscovado sugar in the brewing or making of beer, ale, or worts, until forty days after the next meeting of Parliament, under, subject, and according to the rules, regulations, restrictions, and provisions, fines, penalties, and forfeitures contained and provided in and by the said Act.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 26th day of October 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in Council, bearing date the eighth day of November last, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves; so that such seamen should be taken for His Majesty's service, and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service
