

Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely lodged, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said Act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following, viz.

TABLE (B).

" A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid".

Rice, Tobacco, Wine,
Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits,

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the third division of the vaults situated under the new tobacco warehouse at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, geneva, and other spirits.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 3d day of November 1812, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the city of London, to the opposite side, in the county of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the 32d year of his present Majesty, King George the Third, intituled " An Act for increasing the fund for watching, fighting, cleansing, and repairing Blackfriar's-Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon, on the 3d day of May next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them, by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled " An Act for the relief of the orphans and other creditors of the City of London," or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 3d day of May next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above-mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 3d day of May next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 3d day of May, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declarations in writing, at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, pay to the said several persons the said principal sums, together with all interest as shall on the day, severally specified in such said declarations for the payment thereof, have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declarations for payment, cease and determine, viz.
