WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods to be imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table

thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises of the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely lodged, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said Act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

TABLE (B).

" A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid".

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine,
Brandy,	Geneva,	and other Spirits,

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the third division of the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouse at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, geneva, and other spirits.
