To the Creditors of the deceased Mr. WILLIAM PANTON, Merchant, South Bridge-Street, Edinburgh.

A Dividend of 15s. in the pound having been paid to Mr. Panton's Creditors, a final discharge has been subscribed by the greatest part of the Creditors, containing authority to the Trustee to pay over any residue in his hands to Mrs. Panton, for behoof of herself and family; but as a few of the Creditors could not be found to subscribe the discharge, this notice is given, requesting their concurrence in the general measures; and if no further claim is made before Whitsunday next, their acquiescence will be presumed, and the Trustee will then proceed to close the concern in terms of the general discharge and authority above alluded to.—Apply to William Keyden, W. S. Edinburgh.

To be sold by auction, on Wednesday the 14th day of April 1813, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Mosley Arms Inn, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, by order of and before the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Palfreyman, late of Cragg Works, in the County of Chester, and of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Calico-Printer, Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, and with the consent of the Mortgagee;

All that capital and spacious stone-built mansion-house called Cragg Hall, with the walled gardens, hot-houses, shrubberies, and all convenient appurtenances, together with forty-three acres of land, of the large Cheshire measure, or five-abouts; also a well built cotton factory, sixty-five yards in length, and twelve yards in breadth, with two water wheels, a bleaching house, three dye houses, a Blacksmith's shop, and twelve cottages for the work people, also a very good and convenient house for the over-looker of the works.

The works are constantly supplied with a stream of water sufficient for any purpose.

These premises are capitally adapted for the bleaching and printing business to a very great extent, and are situate in the Township of Wildboarehough, in the County of Chester, being six miles from the populous town of Macclesfield, and five miles from Buxton.

The premises are held under a lease from the Earl of Derby, for the term of three lives, all of which are now in being, at the yearly rent of 2l. 11s. and subject to the payment of 6l. 18s. 6d. for and in lieu of an heriot, upon the decease of the original lessee; and the like sum upon the death of every other person dying seized of the said premises.

Mr. Peter Harper, at the Works, will shew the premises; and further particulars may be had by applying at the Office of Messrs. Clulow and Stone, Solicitors to the Assignees, in Macclesfield.

DEMERY AND ESSEQUEBO.

BENJAMIN PEYSSSEN, in his capacity as Acting Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice of Demerary and Essequebo, advertises by these presents for the first, second, and third time, that he, by virtue of a sentence decreed by the Honourable Court of Justice of Demerary, and the subsequent execution, will expose and sell, at public execution sale, in the month of October 1813, the cotton plantation Columbia, with all the buildings, slaves, and appurtenances, situated on the East Sea-Coast of the River Demerary, in behalf of John Douglas and G. Robertson, acting executors in the estate of Joseph Cliff, deceased, and sellers of plantation Columbia, plaintiffs in execution, versus Edward Terrill, as purchaser of plantation Columbia.

The inventory of the above-named plantation Columbia, is duly to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Underwood and Dyett, at London.

The judgment of price and concurrence of the net proceeds of sales of said cotton plantation Columbia, will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.
