WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due the 28th of February last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, London, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the said Charity, viz. the Widows of Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Saturday the 10th of next month; the Widows of Boatswains and Gunners, on Monday the 12th; and the Widows of Carpenters, Pursers, Surgeons, and Second Masters, on Tuesday the 13th; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th of next month, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near the respective places of their residence.

J. W. CROKER.

Whitehall, March 18, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday night the 13th instant, between the hours of nine and ten, Samuel Greenwood, gamekeeper to Christopher Wilson, Esq. of Elmsal-Lodge, near Ferrybridge, in the county of York, was shot in the thigh, beat about the head and body, and otherways illtreated by three men, who were poaching in a plantation near Elmsal;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person who actually shot at and wounded the said Samuel Greenwood) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Christopher Wilson to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, March 26, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Monday the 22d instnt, the synagogue in Severn-Street, the meeting-house in Coleshill-Street, and the chapel in Bond-Street, within the town of Birmingham, were by some evil-disposed persons severally broken and entered, and different articles feloniously stolen thereout;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by the heads of the said synagogue and meeting-houses.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fortieth year of His present Majesty's reign, for repealing former Acts relative to the establishment of a School of Physic in Ireland, for enlarging and extending the powers of the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, and establishing a complete School of Physic in this kingdom, it is enacted,

That every Professorship in said School shall become vacant at the end of every seventh year from the date of the election: and whereas it is further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, when any of the Professorships, called King's Professorships, in the City of Dublin, on the foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, shall in such wise become vacant, to direct that such Professorship shall continue to be held for a further term of seven years, after the expiration of the term for which the Professor so directed to be continued shall have been elected:

Provided always, that the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians shall give three months notice, previous to the time at which the election to such Professorship should otherwise have been held, in the Dublin and London Gazettes, of such their direction:

And whereas the period of the tenure of the King's Professorship of the Institutes of Medicine in the City of Dublin, on the foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, held by John William Boyton, M. D. will expire on the 10th of July next, the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians have directed, and do hereby publish and declare their direction, that the aforesaid John William Boyton, M. D. shall continue to hold the Professorship of the Institutes of Medicine as aforesaid, for the ensuing term of seven years, commencing from the expiration of that term for which he was elected.

By order,

Geo. F. Todderick, Register.

Dublin, March 19, 1813.
