*Navy Pay-Office, London,
April 14, 1813.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the licence of Mr. Michael Davis, of Brown's-Buildings, St. Mary-Axe, having expired on the 6th of this month, a renewal of it will not be granted, on the ground of his having refused to pay certain seamen of His Majesty's ship the Gloucester (who lately belonged to His Majesty's ship the Dictator) their respective shares of prize-money, which he had received under authorities from them, for captures made by the last-mentioned ship, unless they would agree to take the value of such shares in slops.

GEORGE ROSE.

RIVER CHAM NAVIGATION.

IN pursuance of an Order of the House of Commons of the 26th day of March last, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for an Act for amending an Act of Queen Anne, for making the River Cham more navigable, from Clayhithe-Ferry to the Queen's Mill, in the county of Cambridge.

B

IN obedience to an Order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 6th day of April 1813, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the city of London, to the opposite side, in the county of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon, on the 6th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them; by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled "An Act for the relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the city of London;" or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 6th day of October next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 6th day of October next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 6th day of October, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office of Chamberlain of the city of London, pay to the said several persons the said principal sums, together with all interest as shall on the day, severally specified in such said declaration for the payment thereof, have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.
