

ALL persons having any claim or demand upon the estate or effects of Elizabeth Webb, formerly of Much-Haddam, in the County of Hertford, but late of Dog and Duck-Yard, Princes-Street, Bedford-Row, in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, widow, deceased, are requested forthwith to apply to Messrs. Lodington and Hall, Solicitors for the Administrator of the said Elizabeth Webb, No. 1, King's-Bench-Walks, in the Temple, for payment and discharge thereof, previous to distribution being made of the residue of the effects, or they will be excluded; and all persons now standing indebted to the said estate are hereby required by the Administrator to pay their respective debts to the said Messrs. Lodington and Hall, on or before the 11th day of May next, in order that distribution may be made accordingly.

ALL persons who stood indebted to David Probart, late of Malpas, in the County of Chester, Innkeeper, at his death, are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts, without delay, to John Aldersey Probart, of Kidnell, near Malpas aforesaid, the Administrator of his personal estate, or to Messrs. Knight and Brookes, Solicitors, Whitechurch, Salop; and all persons who had any demand against the said David Probart at the time of his decease, are desired to send the particulars thereof, and of any securities given for the same, to the said John Aldersey Probart, or Messrs. Knight and Brookes.

The Estate of JAMES MOORE, Cateaton-Street, London, Warehouseman, deceased.

ALL persons indebted to this estate are desired forthwith to pay the same to the undermentioned gentlemen, or their Solicitor; and all persons having any claim on the deceased are desired to send in an account thereof forthwith, in order that a Dividend may be made.

NATH. DAVIES, Lothbury, Solicitor for Jonathan Wilks, of Leeds, Clothier, Jeremiah Carter, of Coleman-Street, London, Warehouseman, and William Bentley Cartwright, of Cateaton-Street, Merchant, the Administrators.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Edinburgh, April 13, 1813.

ALL persons having claims on the estate of William Maitland, Esq. the younger, of Valleyfield, some time of Virginia, North America, now deceased, are requested to lodge the same, with the vouchers and instructions thereof, in the hands of Mr. Ephraim Lockhart, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh, within six months from this date, with certification, that they shall otherwise have no share in the division of the said estate, which will then take place.

IF James Dadman, Son of James Dadman, late of King's-Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, be living, and will apply to Mr. James Guy, of Messingham, near Lynn aforesaid, or to Mr. William Dadman, of Thorney, near Peterborough, he will hear of something to his advantage; and in case of his death, any clergyman or other person sending an authentic account thereof to either the said Mr. Guy or Mr. Dadman, such information will be thankfully received, and all reasonable expences paid.—The said James Dadman is upwards of fifty years of age, and it is now about twenty years since he has been heard of by his friends; about that time he left the service of Lady Peyton, in Wales, who then had a seat at Eamoth, near Wisbich, in the Isle of Ely, where he first catered into her ladyship's service.—Dated April 10, 1813.

BY virtue of an Order of the Honourable Court of Justice of the colony and dependent districts of Demerary, dated 18th December 1812, are hereby summoned all colonial and other Creditors to the estate of Alexander Cassie, deceased, in which estate A. D. Nyck, S. Cramer, and J. S. Massé, have been appointed Curators, to give in at the Secretary's office of this colony, in the chief town of Stabrock, their claims, with the vouchers relating thereto; to wit, the colonial Creditors within six months, and the other Creditors within twelve months from the date of these presents; after the expiration of which time the Court will decide on the preference or priority of such claims, and decree perpetual silence with respect to those who shall not have given in their claims by that time.—Court-House, Stabrock, Demerary, this 22th of December 1812.

ALEX. TINNE, A. Co. Just.
