His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that the said Private Men who upon examination, shall be found fit for service, shall receive the sum of one shilling and four-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining station, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march; and be afterwards subsisted until allotted to a Veteran Battalion, at the rate of one shilling per diem for pay, and one penny per diem for beer money.

His Royal Highness is also pleased to order, that every man found fit for duty shall, on his joining the Veteran Battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and it is His Royal Highness's gracious intention, that every such man whose pension is now less than nine-pence per diem, shall be entitled, when discharged, to that increased rate of Out-Pension, provided he be recommended by his Colonel or Commanding Officer as an object deserving of His Majesty's royal bounty.

It is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the men who, upon examination shall be found unfit for any duty shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and four-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march; receiving also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive pay and beer money, as above.

And it is hereby notified, that all Out-Pensioners in South Britain, hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the Out-Pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty. PALMERSTON.

Admiralty-Office, April 13, 1813.

BY command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, notice is hereby given, for the guidance of the Masters and Pilots of His Majesty's ships, and for the benefit of Navigators in general, that information has been received at this Office, of the intention of the Spanish Government to place a Light upon the Tower on the Island of Tariffa, in the Straits of Gibraltar, and that the exhibition thereof was to commence on the 15th ultimo, and to be continued for the future.

J. W. CROKER.

Navy-Office, April 19, 1813.

MR. John Stock having devised to the President, Treasurer, and Governors of Christ's Hospital, London, a sum of money for the maintenance and education of two boys, the sons of Lieutenants in the Navy, under the following description, to be presented by the Comptroller of His Majesty's Navy, having been first chosen by a full Board of the Commissioners of the Navy, or at least five of them; viz. "The boys to be between the age of seven and ten years, the sons of Lieutenants who have been killed by the public enemy, or in the service; who had been at least four years in that situation, of approved courage, and of good private character; to be born in wedlock, of honest and respectable parents; to be free from lameness or disorders, and their mother a widow, then in low circumstances;"

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that there is now a vacancy in the said School on their presentation, and that they are ready to receive applications from the parents or friends of boys entitled under this description, and desirous of the benefit of this bequest, that they may be enabled to present a proper object for it agreeably to Mr. Stock's will.
