(Translation.)

WHEREAS, an inventory is to be made of the estates and effects of my late husband Captain Isaac Unonius, of Lovisa, deceased; all persons having any demands on the said estate, and all persons who are indebted to the said Isaac Unonius, are hereby desired, the former to send in their claims, duly legalised, and the latter to pay their debts to me, within the time stipulated by law.—And if my said husband should, during his lifetime, have entered into any bond, security, or bail, the same are hereby annulled.—Lovisa, 5th Jan. 1813.

MARTHA W. UNONIUS.

TO be positively sold, to the best bidder, by public auction, by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against William Harvey, of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, Flour-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, at the Pope's Head Inn, in Plymouth, on Thursday the 27th of May instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening precisely;

The fee-simple and inheritance of and in all that valuable and desirable messuage or dwelling-house, situate in Tin-Street, in the Borough of Plymouth, consisting of a large parlour, lobby, counting-house, kitchen, wash-house, brewhouse, and other convenient offices; spacious drawing room, six good lodging rooms, and a large courtyard, lately occupied by the said Mr. Harvey, together with the newly built and substantial warehouse, and two lofts over, 72 feet in length by 30 feet in breadth, on the back part of the said dwelling-house, erected for and lately used as granaries.

The premises are close to Sutton Pool, and immediately adjoining to the new quay, where vessels of considerable burthen may take in and discharge their cargoes, and from their central situation, as well as the extent of ground (being nearly 5000-feet), are indubitably equal, if not superior, to any premises in the Town of Plymouth, either for mercantile or any other business requiring room, and a contiguity to the public offices, quay, and exchange.

To view the premises apply thereon, and for further particulars to Mr. Bozon, Attorney at Law, Plymouth-Dock.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Gibbs against Rumsey, it is referred to William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who was or were the heir or heirs at law of Anne Clarke (late of Chesham, in the County of Bucks, widow), deceased, living at the time of her death (which happened in or about the month of January 1810), and who are now such heir or heirs at law? and also who, at the death of the said Anne Clarke, was or were her next of kin? and, in case any of such next of kin are since dead, then who are the personal representative or representatives, of such of them as are so dead? Pursuant therefore to the said Decree, such heir or heirs at law and next of kin, and the personal representative or representatives of such next of kin as are now dead, are (by their Solicitors) on or before the 5th day of June 1813, to come in before the said Master, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Burt and another versus Darby and others, the Creditors of James Wells, late of Blackheath, in the County of Kent, Esq. are personally, or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Edward Morris, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, on or before the 1st day of June next, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Lord against Lord, the Creditors of Mary Lord, late of Northiam, in the County of Sussex, widow of the Reverend William Lord, Clerk, of the same place, deceased, (which Mary Lord died in the year 1801,) are, on or before the 18th day of June next, to come in and prove their Debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hancock against Eggleton, the Creditors of Thomas Hancock, late of Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of November 1811), are to come in and prove their debts before Robert Steel Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 5th day of June 1813, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 30th day of November 1812, made in a Cause wherein Richard Edmonds and William Edmonds (an infant), are plaintiffs, and Headley Ackland and others are defendants, the Creditors of the said plaintiff, Richard Edmonds, late of Gracechurch-Street, in the City of London, Seedsman, (and whose debts are provided to be paid by a trust-deed, dated the 16th day of June 1807), are, on or before the 14th day of June 1813, to come in and prove such debts before John Simcox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of Francis Price, formerly of Monmouth-Court, Whitcomb-Street, in the Parish of Saint-Martins in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, but late of Orange-Street, Leicester-Square, in the same County, Jeweller, discharged from His Majesty's prison of Newgate, under an Act of Parliament passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England," are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. George Bousfield, in Bourverie-Street, Fleet-Street, London, on Friday the 21st day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, in order to appoint an Assignee or Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Francis Price, pursuant to the said Act.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Sugeltharp, of Portman-Mews, Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Hackneyman, Horse-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, may receive a Dividend of 4s. 6d. in the pound, on applying any Tuesday or Friday, between Ten and Two o'Clock, at the Office of Messrs. Richardson, Fisher and Lake, Bury-Street, Saint-James's; the Creditors who hold bills or other securities for their debts will be desired to produce them.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ashmead and William Furlong, of the City of Bristol, Haberdashers and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, at the Baptist-Head Coffee-House, Aldermanbury, London, on Friday the 14th day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at
