

of Captain Jenkins, who has lost one arm, and is in danger of losing the other. I must also report the intrepidity of Captain Lelievre, of the Newfoundland regiment, who had the immediate charge of the militia under Colonel Fraser; of Captain Eustace, and the other officers of the King's regiment, and particularly of Lieutenant Ridge, of that corps, who very gallantly led on the advance, and of Lieutenant M'Auley and Ensign M'Donnell, of the Glengarry regiment, as also Lieutenant Gangneben, of the royal engineers, and of Ensign M'Kay, of the Glengarry light infantry, and of Ensign Kerr, of the militia, each of whom had charge of a field-piece, and of Lieutenant Impey, of the militia, who has lost a leg. I was also well supported by Colonel Fraser and the other officers and men of the militia, who emulated the conspicuous bravery of all the troops of the line. I inclose a list of the killed and wounded.

The enemy had five hundred men under arms, and must have sustained a considerable loss.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Whitehall, May 14, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Lieutenant-General Sir John Stuart, Count of Maida, Knight Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that, in compliance with the desire of His Majesty Ferdinand the Fourth, King of the Two Sicilies, he may accept, and that he and his descendants may bear, the following honourable armorial augmentation, viz. in chief of his and their arms THE ROYAL SICILIAN EAGLE, with the royal cypher, ensigned with the Crown of His Sicilian Majesty on the breast thereof; and, as a crest, the same Eagle, charged as aforesaid: the said distinction having been granted by His Sicilian Majesty to the said Sir John Stuart, as a signal mark of his royal favour and esteem, and in order to perpetuate in his family, and to posterity, the remembrance of the great, important, and highly distinguished services rendered by him to the Crown of Sicily, on divers occasions, whilst commanding the British army, serving in defence of his dominions, and particularly in the year 1810, (an era to be ever memorable in the annals of Sicily,) when a most formidable attempt upon that kingdom, by a powerful enemy, was repelled by the valour and firmness of the British forces, in co-operation with the faithful and zealous exertions of His Sicilian Majesty's own brave and loyal subjects; the said armorial distinctions being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that this royal concession, and especial mark of His Majesty's favour, may, together with the relative documents, be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 18, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Rhoda Carleton Groome, Spinster, only child of the Reverend William Groome, Clerk, Rector of Thakeham, in the county of Sussex, by Mary his wife, sole surviving sister of Edward Carleton, late of Arundel, in the said county, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of her maternal uncle the said Edward Carleton, she may take and use the surname and bear the arms of Carleton; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 3, 1813.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Fenwick, of the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.
