Whitehall, June 10, 1813.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Monday morning last Martha Stephens, late of Woodford, in the county of Essex, Widow, was found upon the floor of her shop most inhumanly and barbarously murdered by some person or persons who had fractured the skull and cut the throat of the said Martha Stephens, and that this atrocious act was committed late at night on the Saturday preceding; and that a quantity of money had been taken from the till, and a plain metal gilt watch, maker's name Thomas Ridley, Woodford, No. 1544, which winds up in the face, and is a large and rather a flat watch; and a very sharp case knife, are missing;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice any person or persons who may have been aiding, assisting, or in any manner concerned in the perpetration of the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any such person or persons so aiding or assisting in the said murder (except the person or persons who actually committed the same), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Woodford, in the said county of Essex.

No. 16743.
