TOWN OF GALWAY—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Veneris 18^o die Junij, 1813.

WHEREAS the select committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Valentine Blake, of Menlo, in the county of the town of Galway, Esq. and of the petition of John Joyce, Patrick M. Lynch, John Lynch, Alexander Nicholas Browne, James Finn, and John French Madden, complaining of an undue election and return for the said town, have this day reported to the House:

‘ That it appeared to the said select committee, that the merits of the petitions did, in part, depend upon the right of election; and therefore the committee required the counsel for the several parties to deliver to the clerk of the committee, statements, in writing, of the right of election for which they respectively contended:’

‘ That in consequence thereof, the counsel for the petitioner Valentine Blake, Esq. and also for the several other petitioners, delivered in a statement, as follows:

“ That the right of election in and for the town and county of the town of Galway, is in the freeholders of the said town and county of the town of Galway, and in the free burgesses and freemen thereof, such freemen having been resident in the said town and county of the town, or the liberties thereof, at the time of their election to their freedom, and also at the time of their voting:”

‘ That the counsel for the sitting Member, the Honourable Frederick Ponsonby, delivered in a statement as follows:

“ That the right of election in and for the town and county of the town of Galway, is in the freeholders of the said town and county of the town of Galway, and in the freemen of the corporation of the said town:”

‘ That upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the said petitioners, the committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the town and county of the town of Galway:’

‘ That upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the sitting Member, the committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is the right of election for the said town and county of the town of Galway:’

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act made in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act for the further regulation of the trials of controverted elections, or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand, the 18th day of June 1813,
CHAS. ABBOT, Speaker.

Carlton-House, June 24, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was this day pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and in compliance with the request of His
