

March 17, 1813.

A Dissolution of Partnership between John Adkins and John Eeles, Coal-Dealers, of No. 52, Brick-Lane, Old-Street, St. Luke's Parish, London, has taken place from the 8th day of October last.—Witness our hands.

John Adkins,
John Eeles.

LONDON.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 31st day of May, in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before George Scholey, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir Charles Price, Baronet, Sir John Peirring, Baronet, Sir Charles Flower, Baronet, Aldermen of the said City, John Silvester, Esq. Recorder of the said City, William Donville, Esq. John Atkins, Esq. William Heygate, Esq. other of the Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City, and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Truſſes, and other Misdeeds committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or accounts of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rape-seed, oatmeal, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 8th day of February last, to the 8th day of May instant, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a cornfactor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill, and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf: And the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley .....	3	0	4	Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans .....	3	10	9
Pease .....	4	15	1
Rye .....	3	6	3
Wheat .....	6	3	7
Rape Seed .....	6	0	0
Oatmeal .....	2	1	8	Average price per boll on the last six weeks.
Oats .....	2	0	8

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

WHEREAS Edward Lofthouse, late of the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, Chymist and Druggist, by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 2d day of November 1811, did assign over all his personal estate and effects to Trustees for the equal benefit of his Creditors.—Notice is hereby given, that all those Creditors of the said Edward Lofthouse, who neglect or refuse to sign the said assignment, at this time lodged at the Office of Mr. Pearson, A lawyer at law, Carlisle, on or before the 2d day of August next, will be excluded from all benefit which may arise therefrom, as the Trustees will on that day make a final Dividend of the estate and effects of the said Edward Lofthouse.

SWINDLING.

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

WHEREAS, a person, calling himself Captain James Sinclair, did on the 19th of June instant, fraudulently obtain from Messrs. John Dunn and Co. bankers, Tenby, their bill or draft for 1000l. dated on that day, drawn on Messrs. Ricketts, Thorne, George, Wait, Dymock, and Courtenay, bankers, in Bristol, at thirty days after date, payable to his order.

Now, a reward is hereby offered of 50l. to be paid on the safely lodging of the said James Sinclair in any of His Majesty's gaols, and the further sum of 50l. on his conviction for the said offence. All persons are hereby cautioned against taking the said bill or draft for 1000l. the payment of which has been stopped. It has been since ascertained, that Sinclair, has also assumed the names of Morgan and Davis, and stated himself to be captain of a trading vessel from Bristol to Ireland, and has the appearance of a seafaring man; he is about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, five feet five inches in height, rather stout, ruddy face with dark whiskers, and his hair cut short, lisps a little, and has a smile when addressing persons; had on when he went away a round hat, a blue coat, blue cloth pantaloons, and half boots; is supposed to be an Irishman.

The above reward will be paid by Messrs. Dunn and Co. Tenby; or by Mr. Isaac Cooke, Solicitor, Bristol.

Ram Inn, Gloucester, 14th of June 1813.

BE it remembered, that we, whose names are hereunto subscribed, being the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Cook Ward, of the City of Gloucester, having met together the day and year, and at the place above mentioned, in order to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, pursuant to notice given in the London Gazette for that purpose; and it appearing to us, by the account of Thomas Ward, one of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt, this day exhibited to us, upon oath, that the Bankrupt's estate and effects got in and received by him, doth amount to the sum of 3200l. and it also appearing to us by the said account, that the said Assignees have paid, laid out, and expended the sum of 112l. 5s. 6d. which being deducted from the sum of 3200l. reduces the same to the sum of 3087l. 14s. 6d. which now remains in the hands of the said Assignees to be divided; and it appearing to us that the debts proved and claimed under the said Commission, make together the sum of 2899l. 1s. 2d. we do order and direct, that the said Assignees do forthwith pay and divide, unto and amongst all and every the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, who have proved their debts, and the claimants when they shall have substantiated their claims, 20s. in the pound, in proportion to their several and respective debts.
