TO be sold by auction (by order of and before the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Robert Crompton, late of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, Paper-Maker, Dealer and Chapman), in the following or such other lots as shall be agreed upon at the time of the sale, at the house of Mrs. Biddlecombe, the Castle Inn, in Stockport, in the County of Chester, on Wednesday the 4th day of August next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced.

Lot 1. All those four several messuages or dwelling-houses, with their respective appurtenances, situate lying and being in the Middle Hillgate, in Stockport aforesaid, and now or late in the several occupations of Thomas Jones, Joseph Barber, Philip Newall, and William Ash, as tenants thereof.

Lot 2. All those three several messuages, cottages, or dwelling-houses, and the cellars under the same, with their respective appurtenances, situate lying and being in Garnett-Street, in Stockport aforesaid, in the several occupations of Joshua Stoney, William Pimlott, and Robert Sims, as tenants thereof.

Lot 3. All those four several messuages, cottages, or dwelling-houses, with their respective appurtenances, situate lying and being in Edgeley, in the Parish of Cheadle, in the said County of Chester, and now in the several occupations of Thomas Fowler, Peter Massey, Joshua Howard, and Mary Burgess, as tenants thereof.

The above premises are freehold of inheritance, subject to several small ground rents, which will be particularized in the conditions of sale, and were heretofore the inheritance of Ellis Crompton; late of Cheadle aforesaid, Innkeeper, deceased.

The respective tenants will shew the premises, and further information may be had on application to Mr. Baddeley, of Stockport aforesaid, Solicitor to the said Commission, or to Henry Gaskell, of Wigan aforesaid, Solicitor to the Mortgagees.

SUSSEX.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Bartlett, on Tuesday next, the 13th day of July instant, precisely at Twelve o'clock, at the Angel Inn, Midhurst, by order of, and before the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against James Cobden, the following freehold and leasehold estates, situate in and near the town of Midhurst;

Lot 1. A leasehold estate, for a long term of years, situate at Midhurst, comprising a very substantial and well built malt house, 70 feet in length, and 23 feet in width, with a barley granary and loft over the whole, together with a slip of ground behind the same, 4 feet 6 inches wide:

Lot 2. A leasehold estate, for a long term of years, adjoining lot 1, comprising a compact brewery, mill-house, spirit-cellar, stable, gate room, pig-pounds, yard, and other buildings on the south side of such yard, together with a piece of ground on the south side of the cellar, 15 feet 6 inches in width.

Lot 3. A part freehold and part leasehold estate, for a long term, adjoining lot 2, comprising two cottages, 57 feet in front and 25 feet in depth, together with a garden behind, 73 feet from east to west, and 52 feet from north to south, at the west end.

Lot 4. A leasehold estate, for the lives of Mr. Thomas Newland, senior, aged 61 years, and Mr. Charles Newland, aged 25 years, comprising 27½ acres of good arable land, customary measure; together with a barn belonging thereto, situate at Cocking, within two miles of Midhurst.

Lot 5. A leasehold estate, situate at Cocking, for the lives of Mr. Thomas Newland, senior, aged 61 years, and Mr. Charles Newland, aged 25 years, comprising a valuable public-house, garden, orchard, and buildings attached, (except the barn) and is known by the sign of the Bell, in which a very considerable business is carried on.

Lot 6. A freehold estate, situate at Heyshot, within two miles of Midhurst, comprising a dwelling-house, garden, &c. lately called the Black Horse.

Lot 7. A leasehold estate, for 1000 years, comprising that capital and well known inn, called the Angel, with stabling for 23 horses, and other out buildings, two extensive gardens, bowling-green, yard, &c. This inn is placed in the most eligible part of Midhurst, and is unquestionably one of the best on the London road from Chichester. At this house the markets are held and public business transacted; it is also very liberally supported by the inhabitants of the Town.

Lot 8. A freehold estate, comprising a most excellent and well accustomed public house, with out-buildings, gardens, &c. and 3 acres, more or less, of highly cultivated arable land adjoining. These premises are known by the name of the Half Moon, and are very pleasantly situate, within a mile of Midhurst, on the Peterfield road.

Conditions will be produced at the sale: further particulars may be obtained by application to Messrs. Johnson, Price and Freeland, Solicitors; or to Mr. Bartlett, at his
