Lord Chamberlain's Office, July 13, 1813.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 15th instant, at one o'clock.

Westminster, July 10, 1813.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Deputy Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for raising the sum of five millions six hundred and seventy thousand, and seven hundred pounds, by Exchequer bills, for the service of Great Britain for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

An Act for raising the sum of one million by Exchequer bills, for the service of Great Britain for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

An Act for confirming the renunciation made by Spencer Perceval, Esq. of his pensions, on his taking the office of a Teller of the Exchequer.

An Act to enable the Lords of the Treasury of Ireland to issue to the Commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, a sum equal to one per centum on the amount of Treasury-bills outstanding in every year.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the present session for granting additional duties of customs on goods, wares, or merchandize, imported into, and exported from Great Britain, for allowing a drawback on carrot tobacco exported, for altering the duties on pearls imported, for repealing the additional duty on barilla granted by the said Act, for allowing a drawback of the additional duties of customs on timber used in the tin, lead, and copper-mines of Devon and Cornwall, for ascertaining the time when the bounty on goods exported may be claimed, for better preventing the clandestine exportation of goods, and for appropriating the duties on sugar, the produce of Martinique and other places, granted by an Act of this session.

An Act to authorize the Commissioners to transfer excise licences to the executors or administrators of deceased licensed traders, or to their successors in the houses from which such licensed traders shall have removed.

An Act to permit the entry into Ireland, for home consumption, of sugar, the produce or manufacture of Martinique, Mariegalante, Guadeloupe, Saint Eustatia, Saint Martin and Saba, at a lower rate of duty than is payable upon sugar not of the British plantations.

An Act for altering, explaining, and amending an Act of the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, for granting stamp duties in Great Britain, with regard to the duties on re-issuable promissory notes, and on conveyances on the sale and mortgage of property; for better enabling the Commissioners of Stamps to give relief in cases of spoiled stamps, and to remit penalties; for exempting certain instruments from stamp duty; and for better securing the duties on stage coaches.

An Act to continue, until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, several laws relating to the duties on glass made in Great Britain.

An Act to suspend the exportation of foreign spirits from Great Britain to the Isle of Man, under licence from the Commissioners of Customs, and to permit the exportation of a limited quantity of Irish spirits in lieu thereof, under licence from the Commissioners of Customs and port duties in Ireland, from certain ports of that part of the kingdom to the said isle, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.
