

Whitehall, July 16, 1813.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers depredations have lately been committed in the township of Barnet, in the county of Berks, and particularly on the property of Thomas Parkes, Esq.; and further, that a barn full of hay, and offices adjoining, belonging to the said Thomas Parkes, was, on the 6th day of this instant, totally destroyed by fire, and that there is strong reason for believing that the same was done wilfully;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in setting fire to the said barn, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the same), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of Barnet, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.
