

Whitehall, August 21, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday morning last the 14th instant, the body of the Reverend Nicholas Westcombe was found in a lane called Old Gallions-Lane, close adjoining to the city of Winchester, most inhumanly murdered, and also robbed of a silver watch, with no maker's name, but supposed to be numbered 4811, and other articles of value;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice any person or persons who may have been aiding, assisting, or in any manner concerned in the perpetration of the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any such person or persons so aiding or assisting in the said murder as aforesaid (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the family of the deceased, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Grimsby Haven Navigation, &c.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next Session of Parliament, for an Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of the thirty-sixth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for widening, deepening, enlarging, altering, and improving, the haven of the town and port of Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln;" and another Act of the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Grimsby Haven Company, to finish and complete the navigation of the said haven, and for amending An Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for widening, deepening, enlarging, altering, and improving the haven of the town and port of Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln;" and likewise (by the said intended Act) to enable the Grimsby Haven Company, to erect and maintain a pier or piers, jetty or jetties, and other works in, adjoining, or near to the said haven, and the dock and harbour or outfall of the said port, or some of them, and to receive and take tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of passengers, goods, cattle, wares, merchandise, and things entering into or departing from the said port: and which said dock and harbour, or such parts thereof as are intended to be altered or improved, are situate in the parish and township of Great Grimsby aforesaid.—And in which said intended Act, provisions are intended to be proposed for increasing, altering, and extending the existing tolls; rates, or duties granted by the said Acts of the thirty-sixth and thirty-ninth years of His present Majesty, or either of them, and for otherwise better effecting the several intents and purposes thereof.—Dated this 23d day of August 1813.

By order,
Jno. Squire, Clerk to the said Company.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, inclosing, and allotting the waste lands within the manor of Hilderstone, in the parish of Stone, in the county of Stafford.—August 27, 1813.
