

unoccupied.--This lot and lot 1, are well adapted for building on.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, of Mr. Edmed, and at the Falcon, Gravesend; and of Messrs. Cooper and Lowe, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable John Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, before the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against George Stokes, of Oldswinford, in the County of Worcester, Nail-Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, on Monday the 27th day of September 1813, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Stewponcy Inn, in the Parish of Kinver, in the County of Stafford, subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

All that capital and complete mansion-house situate near the church, at Oldswinford aforesaid, with the offices, coach-houses, stabling for fourteen horses, outbuildings, and walled garden, hot-house, vinery, green-houses, lawns, plantations, and shrubberies in the most complete order and repair, late the residence of the said George Stokes, and fit for the immediate reception of a Gentleman's family, containing four acres and twelve perches.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Clarke and Pardoe, Solicitors, in Bewdley; Mr. Robins, Solicitor, in Stourbridge; or to Messrs. Court and Jacob, the Auctioneers, at Blackstone, near Bewdley, or at their Office in College-Yard, Worcester.

TO be sold pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable John Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, before the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against George Stokes, of Oldswinford, in the County of Worcester, Nail Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, on Monday the 27th day of September 1813, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Stewponcy Inn, in the Parish of Kinver, in the County of Stafford, subject to such conditions as will then be produced.

Lot 1.—All those freehold water-mills, heretofore used as corn-mills, and lately used by the said George Stokes, for rolling and slitting of iron, with the warehouses, shops, coal-house and out buildings to the same, adjoining and belonging, situate upon the River Stour, at the upper end of the Town of Kinver, in the County of Stafford; also the meadow called the Ham-Close, the sling above the flood-gates, and two cottages, near the end of Kinver-Bridge, late in the possession of John Malpass and Henry Fryer; also such parts of Near Stirrymoor Meadow and Upper Stirrymoor Meadow, containing about two acres, as are converted into a pool or reservoir, for the better supplying the said mills with water.

Lot 2. A freehold messuage or dwelling-house, fronting the Street, in Kinver aforesaid, with the stable, counting-house, and yard, thereto adjoining and belonging, lately occupied by Thomas Johnson, but now void; also two gardens and rick-yard adjoining, now occupied by Mrs. Francis and Mr. Joseph Hancox; also another tenement and waggon-stable, newly erected, adjoining the road leading from Kinver to the bridge, and held by Mr. Hancox.

Lot 3. Four freehold tenements or dwelling-houses, with the out-buildings, and several closes or pieces of rich arable, meadow, or pasture land, thereto adjoining and belonging, situate at or near a place called Wittlemore, in the parish of Dudley, in the said County of Worcester, containing by mensuration 18A. 3L. 32P. more or less, in the possession of Mr. Joseph Hill, as tenant from year to year, or his undertenants.

These premises lie near to Dudley canal, and the lower road leading from Dudley to Rowley Regis and Halesowen, and in which lands there are understood to be exceeding good mines of coal and ironstone.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Robins, Solicitor, in Stourbridge, Worcestershire; or Messrs. Court and Jacob, the Auctioneers, at Blackstone, near Bewdley; or at their Office, in College-Yard, Worcester.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Eschequer at Westminster, bearing date the 24th day of May 1813, made in a Cause Anstey v. Knapping, the Creditors of Christopher Knapping, late of Shopland, in the County of Essex, Farmer, (who died some time in or about the month of May 1806,) and also the Legatees under his will, are forthwith to come in, by their Solicitors, before Abel Moysey, Esq. the Deputy-Remembrancer of the said Court, at his Chambers, in the Exchequer-Office, in the Inner Temple, London, and prove their respective debts, and claim their respective legacies, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 24th day of March 1813, made in a Cause wherein Thomas Harrison, Esq. and his wife are plaintiffs, and James French and others are defendants, the Creditors of Richard James Whytwell, formerly of the Island of Saint Vincent, in the West Indies, Esq. deceased (who died there some time in or soon after the month of May 1796), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Simeon, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of George White, formerly of Jermyn-Street, Saint James's, Middlesex, and late of College-Street, Liverpool, Taylor, but last a prisoner for debt in the King's Bench prison, in the County of Surrey, are required to meet Mr. Matthew Comings Walker, the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said George White, on the 12th day of October next, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, at Barnard's-Inn Coffee-House, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, when and where a dividend will be declared of the estate and effects of the said George White; and all the said Creditors are previously to make out and at the said meeting produce such proof of their respective debts as is required by the Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for the relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England," under or by virtue of which the said George White was discharged from his said imprisonment, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Sturmev, of Weymouth, in the County of Dorset, Upholsterer, Haberdasher, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects on Friday the 10th day of September instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Willis, Fairthorne and Clarke, in Warnford-Court, Throgmorton-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade, household furniture, and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and to the said Assignees accepting personal security for the payment thereof, or of such part thereof as they may think proper, and either by instalments or otherwise, as to the said Assignees may seem meet; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery and receipt of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Walsby, of Battersea, in the County of Surrey, Common-Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 16th day of September instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Bourdillon and Hewitt, in Little Friday-Street, Cheapside, London, in order to take into consideration the legality of a claim (made by and on the part and behalf of the Trustees named in the settlement on the marriage of the Bankrupt with his now wife) of the brewery, plant, fixtures, and other things belonging thereto, and in the possession of the Bankrupt when the Commission issued, and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such measures for ascertaining the rights and interests of the party claiming, and to allow or resist the same as they shall be advised, or as they shall in their discretion think fit, and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the goods, chattels, furniture, property and effects, belonging to the said Bankrupt, or in or upon which the said Bankrupt may have any interest or claim; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining or
