Whitehall, September 6, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the stables, barn, and outhouses belonging to the George Inn, at Greatbridge, in the county of York, and occupied by Mr. Ralph Chambers, was maliciously set on fire by some unknown person, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, on the evening of Saturday the 21st August last;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in setting fire to the said premises, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the association for the prosecution of felons in the neighbourhood, and a further sum of FIFTY POUNDS by Sir Robert Eden, the proprietor of the premises, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, September 8, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about ten o'clock in the evening of Wednesday the 27th ultimo, the rick yard belonging to Mr. John Hölbin, farmer, at Biglass, in the parish of St. Andrew's, in the county of Glamorgan, was maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person, by which the whole of the property therein was entirely consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick yard), who shall discover his or their
