

the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

TABLE (B).

“ A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid,”

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine,
Brandy,	Geneva, and other	Spirits.

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize, and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the fourth division of the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouses at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, Geneva, and other spirits.

Given under our hands at the Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall, the 4th day of October 1813, Admiralty Office, October 4, 1813.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed on the 2d July last, it is enacted, that there shall be allowed to British Governors, Ministers, Consuls, and Merchants, residing in foreign parts, for the maintenance of all seafaring men and boys, subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, that shall be shipwrecked, captured, or by other unavoidable accident, be driven or cast away, or that shall be discharged, as unserviceable, from any of His Majesty's ships, or vessels, at such foreign ports or places where such Governors, Ministers, Consuls, or Merchants reside; and to every Master or other person, having charge of a ship or vessel, taking on board and subsisting such seafaring men and boys, in the manner expressed in the Act 31 Geo. 2. cap. 10, such sum of money per diem as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, from time to time, shall, in their discretion, direct;

Notice is hereby given, that the Lords of the Admiralty, have, by the authority of the aforementioned Act, directed the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, to cause the sum of one shilling and sixpence per diem, for the subsistence and passage home of each such seaman or seafaring boy, to be paid to any person or persons that may be entitled to receive the same, under the provisions of the said Act: observing, in respect to Merchants, that by the Act passed in the thirty-first of His late Majesty, intituled “ An Act for the encouragement of seamen employed in the Royal Navy,” &c. it is enacted, that in those foreign parts where there is not a resident Governor, Minister, or Consul, two or more British Merchants are authorised to act, in providing for such seafaring men and boys.

J. W. CROKER.

I DO hereby give notice, that the Trustees of a certain Charity at Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, called Hulme's Exhibitions, have registered in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, a Memorial of the said Charity, pursuant to an Act passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty's reign; and that the particular objects of such Charity are certain of the poorest sort of Bachelors of Arts who shall continue and reside in Brazen-Nose College, in Oxford, for the space of four years, after taking such degree of Bachelor of Arts.—September 28, 1813.

E. Gorst, Deputy Clerk of the Peace.
