SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Aaron Everard, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Admiralty-Office, October 4, 1813.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed on the 2d July last, it is enacted, that there shall be allowed to British Governors, Ministers, Consuls, and Merchants, residing in foreign parts, for the maintenance of all seafaring men and boys, subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, that shall be shipwrecked, captured, or by other unavoidable accident, be driven or cast away, or that shall be discharged, as unserviceable, from any of His Majesty's ships, or vessels, at such foreign ports or places where such Governors, Ministers, Consuls, or Merchants reside; and to every Master or other person, having charge of a ship or vessel, taking on board and subsisting such seafaring men and boys, in the manner expressed in the Act 31 Geo. 2. cap. 10, such sum of money per diem as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, from time to time, shall, in their discretion, direct;

Notice is hereby given, that the Lords of the Admiralty, have, by the authority of the aforementioned Act, directed the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, to cause the sum of one shilling and sixpence per diem, for the subsistence and passage home of each such seaman or seafaring boy, to be paid to any person or persons that may be entitled to receive the same, under the provisions of the said Act: observing, in respect to Merchants, that by the Act passed in the thirty-first of His late Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the encouragement of seamen employed in the Royal Navy," &c. it is enacted, that in those foreign parts where there is not a resident Governor, Minister, or Consul, two or more British Merchants are authorised to act, in providing for such seafaring men and boys.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice is hereby given, that a writ of Ad quod Damnum, issuing out of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, directed to the Sheriff of the county of Buckingham, to inquire whether it will be to the damage of our Lord the King, or any other, if licence should be given to John Penn, of Stoke-Park, in the said county, Esq. to enclose and hold, to his own private use, a certain road beginning at a cross road at the pound, in the parish of Stoke-Poges, in the said county, near a field called Broomfield, and running from thence, in a southward direction, through or between, or abutting upon; or adjoining certain fields or closes of the said John Penn, Lord Francis Godolphin Osborne, Christopher Saiter, Esq. and Mary Jaque Ormsby, Spinster, to and towards and ending within the distance of two hundred and twenty yards from a private road, leading out of the said road to Baylis-

Farm, in a westward direction, in the parish of Stoke-Poges aforesaid, the same way or road extending in length two thousand and ninety yards, or thereabouts, will be executed on Tuesday the 26th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Crown Inn, at Slough, in the county aforesaid.

I DO hereby give notice, that the Trustees of a certain Charity called Mrs. Mary Beck's Charity, have registered and left in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, for the city of Bristol and county of the same city, a memorial or statement of the said Charity, and that the general objects of the said Charity, are yearly and weekly, or other payments of divers sums of money to divers persons and charitable or other institutions in the said city of Bristol, the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, and the several parishes of Winterbourne, Mangottsfield, Saint George, and Saint Paul, or elsewhere, in the county of Gloucester.—October 9, 1813.

Geo. Merrick, Deputy Clerk of the Peace.

Office of Ordnance, October 8, 1813.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 29th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of the following quantities and descriptions of Cast Iron Pipe, for service of this Department, viz.

667 Yards of 10 Inch Cast Iron Pipe.
2220 ditto of 6 Inch ditto Service Pipe.
34 ditto of 10 Inch Stand ditto.
1117 ditto of 6 Inch ditto.

Further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and endorsed "Proposals for Iron Pipe;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 29th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
