

SUPPLEMENT

TO

The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 2d of NOVEMBER.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1813.

I. EUSTANCE LEWES, a prisoner for debt, confined in the King's Bench Prison, in the County of Surry, and late of the parish of St. John's Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and using the name and description of Eustance Lewes, Gentleman; and formerly of the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surry, and using there the name and description of Eustance Lewes, Gentleman, and before then of the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and using there the name and description of Eustance Lewes, Gentleman; and before then of Pembroke, and of Hay, in the County of Brecon, at both these places using the name and description of Eustance Lewes, Attorney at Law; do hereby give notice, that, on the 9th day of October last, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath, to the Court, for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-Inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person, against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition, and the said petition, oath, and schedule, have been filed in the said Court; whereupon the said Court hath ordered that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at the Guildhall of the City of Westminster, on Thursday, the 2d day of December next, at the hour of nine in the morning; and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Messrs. Bateman and Co. Haverfordwest, bankers, Edward Wade, Windmill-hill, Pembrokeshire, farmer, John F. Meyrick, Bush, Pembrokeshire, Esquire, John Dunn, Tar, Pembrokeshire, Esquire, executor of the late Samuel Levi Phillips, Haverfordwest, banker, Jane S. Griffith, Tenby, mercer, Arthur Williams, Holy's Water, Pembrokeshire, farmer; Rebecca Wilmot, Pembroke, widow; John Griffiths, Tenby, gentleman; Essex Phelps, Wedloch, Pembrokeshire, farmer; William Trewen, Pembroke, mercer; George Williams, Pembroke, gentleman; George Woodward, Pembroke, chandler; Edward Thomas, Haverfordwest, gentleman; John Allen, Haverfordwest, shoemaker; Thomas Neeman, Tenby, wine-merchant; John Gilbert, Pembroke, maltster; Sarah Nicholls, widow, Pembroke; Davies Brerenslate, Pembrokeshire, farmer; Messrs. Owen, Caaton, and Co. Haverfordwest, timber-merchants; M. and L. Roch, Haverfordwest, mercers; Lewis Price, Pembroke, clockmaker; Henry Bevan, Pembroke, shoemaker; Hugh Wilson, Creswell, Pembrokeshire, gentleman; George Hitchings, Pembroke, maltster; John Maurice, Haverfordwest, watchmaker; Isaac Ormond, Narberth, taylor; Richard George, Pembroke, blacksmith; Messrs. Dav's and Paynter, Pembroke, mercers;

Richard Jones, Pembroke, grocer; George Griffin, Pembroke, shoemaker; George White, Pembroke, taylor; David John, Coshosten, Pembrokeshire, farmer; Samuel Tardrew, Pembroke, druggist; M. and R. Gaubold, Pembroke, mercers; Samuel Storbreech, Milford, ironmonger; Thomas Gibbs, Haverfordwest, saddler; Anne Howe, Pembroke, spinster; Lewis Pugh, Haverfordwest, innkeeper; Weir, Pembroke, cabinet-maker; John Murchouse, Brownslade, Pembrokeshire, Esq. the Estate of the late Samuel Jones, Pembroke, Esq.; the executors of the late Sir Hugh Owen, Bart., Orielton, Pembrokeshire; Sir John Owen, Bart. Orielton, Pembrokeshire; James Child, Begelly, Pembrokeshire, Esq.; William Evans, Haverfordwest, solicitor; William Hours, Laurenay, Pembrokeshire, builder; David Moxley, Carmarthen; James Needle, Carmarthen, taylor; Rev. Robert Ferris, Carmarthen; William Maddux, Carmarthen, wine-merchant; John Baile, Carmarthen, silversmith; William North, Carmarthen, hop-merchant; William Hughes, Carmarthen, hatter; Executor of late David Bowen, Carmarthen, mercer; Thomas Denstone, Langorse, Breconshire, farmer; the Executor of the late William Jenkins, Twyder, Breconshire, farmer; Viscount Hereford, Tregoyd, Breconshire; Executrix of the late Aythan Lewes, of Brecon, Esq.; Thomas Bridgewater, Monmouth and Brecon regiment, Esq.; Richard Davys, Carmarthen regiment, Esq.; E. Allen Hay, Breconshire, Esq. Executors of the late William Bridgewater; Penkelly, Breconshire, Gent.; Michael Bridgewater, Hay, Breconshire, Gent.; Thomas Longfellow, Brecon, Gent.; Executrix of the late Thomas Williams, Brecon, Gent.; George North, Brecon, mercer; James Spence, Hay, Breconshire, Gent.; Thomas Watkeys, Llanvihangell, Breconshire, Gent.; John Price, Hay, Breconshire, butcher; Executors of the late Rev. Edward Edwards, Hay, Breconshire, Gent.; Executor of the late Rice Price, Hay, Breconshire, surgeon; — Farr, Buith, Breconshire; James Lloyd Harris, the Moon, Herefordshire, Esq.; Rev. Henry Davis, Madley, Herefordshire; John Ambrose and Co. Bristol, grocers; Messrs. Wadhams and Payne, Bristol, glass-manufacturers; Mary Evans, Nodd, Radnorshire, widow; Messrs. Barnard and Ryder, Strand, London, silversmiths; David Thomas, Strand, London, coffee-house-keeper; John Davis, Cork-street, London, taylor; John Pearson, Staples-inn, London, solicitor; Peter Andre, Bond-street, London, hatter; Executors of the late Thomas Hawkes, Piccadilly, London, hatter; Messrs. Young and Hughes, Essex-street, London, solicitors; Sarah Elizabeth Robinson, New-road, London, spinster; B. Baker, David-street, butcher; D. Hamberr and Co. Upper Baker-street, London, coal-merchants; Thomas French, Quebec-street, London, butcher; Francis Owen, New-road, London; William Pyke, New-road, London, green-grocer; George White, Upper Baker-street, London, grocer; D. Jack, John-street, London, baker; Messrs. Brown and Olley, George-street, London, brewers; Edward Stephens, Paddington, milkman; Thomas Phillips, Dorset-street, London, coal-merchant; G. Mabson, Quebec-street, London, coal-merchant; James Hobbs, New-road, London, shopkeeper; G. Gibson, New-road, London, innkeeper; T. Hutchinson, Crawford-street, London, baker; W. Greenfield, Paddington-street, London, cheesemonger; Abbott, Dorset-street, London, butcher; Messrs. Meredith and Robbins, Lincoln's-inn, solicitors; Charles Inderwick, Tufton-street, London, baker; John Smith, Tufton-street, butcher; J. Ashworth, Bowling-street, London, grocer; Mary Abbott and Son, Romney-street, London, coal-merchants; John Lockyer, Vine-street, London, baker; J. Eaton, Princes-street, London, cheesemonger; J. Clark, Lambeth, publican; Richard Anis, Medway-street, London, gentleman; J. Ashley, Lambeth, green-grocer; J. Best, Lambeth, baker; J. Brown, Tufton-street, London, publican; Edward Newman, Lambeth, brewer; Gaunt, Lambeth, chandler; Ashley, Abingdon-street; London, coal-merchant; J. Slater and Co. Horseferry-road, brewers; Mar. Howell, Lant-street, widow; T. Long, Lant-street, coal-merchant; T. Brown, Suffolk-street, baker; G. Rossiter, Lant-street, publican; J. Williams, Lant-street, grocer, borough; creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application, in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, and hath ordered that notice of the said petition, oath and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the four Newspapers, called the Morning Post, and the Star, the Worcester Journal, and the Shrewsbury Chronicle, of which my said creditors hereinbefore named are hereby required to take notice.

EUSTANCE LEWES.

I, Isaac Holden, now a prisoner for debt, confined in His Majesty's Gaol the King's Bench, and late of St. Vincent's-street, Liverpool, and using the name and description of Isaac Holden, victualler and bricklayer, do hereby give notice, that on the eleventh day of October 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath, and schedule have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday the third day of December next, at the hour of nine in the forenoon: and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Messrs. Mackin and Sutton, brewers, Liverpool; Messrs. William and Enoch Harvey, brewers, of Liverpool; Joseph Cheesborough, accomptant, of Liverpool; John Webb, shoemaker, of Liverpool; Widow Knowles, spirit merchant, of Liverpool; Messrs. Blizards, spirit merchants, of Liverpool; Winter Hargraves, brewer, of Liverpool; George Lyon, brick-maker, of Liverpool; Evan Hughes, gardener of Liverpool; William Wright, draper, of Liverpool; William Rothwell, brewer, Septon, Lancashire; Thomas Stubbs, liquor merchant, of Liverpool; Creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered, that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two Newspapers called the Morning Chronicle and Liverpool Mercury, of which my said creditors hereinbefore named are hereby required to take notice.

ISAAC HOLDEN.

I, Robert Brett, now a prisoner for debt, confined in the King's Bench Prison, and late of Salford, in the County of Lancaster, and using the name and description of Robert Brett, common brewer, carrying on trade under the firm of Cook, Brett, and Burgess, common brewers at Salford, aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath, and schedule have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the third day of December, 1813, at the hour of nine in the morning: and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Scholey and Atkinson, hop merchants, Borough, London; Samuel Jackson, Worksop, Nottinghamshire, maltster; Joseph Thompson, of Worksop, Nottingham, maltster; John Edwards, of Worcester, hop merchant, creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered, that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two Newspapers called the Nottingham Journal and Gazette, of which my said creditors, hereinbefore named are hereby required to take notice.

ROBERT BRETT.

I, Richard Holt, now a prisoner for debt, confined in His Majesty's Gaol the King's Bench, and late of Newton, in the County of Lancaster, and using the name and description of Richard Holt, common brewer, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath and schedule, have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the 3d day of December next, at the hour of nine in the morning; and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Thomas Porter and Co. of Bradford, Lancashire, the proprietors of the Bradford Colliery; William Wilson, Market-street, Manchester, druggist; Richard Williamson, Newton-street, Manchester, shoemaker; John Richardson, Deak's Gate, Manchester, cooper; John Hankin, of Manchester, attorney at law; James Clough, of Failsforth, near Manchester, butcher, Thomas Hughes, late of Newton, near Manchester, victualler; William Hoolley, of Newton, husbandman; Creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two Newspapers called the British Press and the York Courant, of which my said creditors hereinbefore named are hereby required to take notice.

RICHARD HOLT.

I, Abraham Strandring, now a prisoner for debt, confined in His Majesty's Gaol of King's Bench, and late of Oldham, in the County of Lancaster, and using the name and description of Abraham Strandring, victualler, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath, and schedule have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the third day of December, 1813, at the hour of nine in the morning; and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Thomas Phillips, of Manchester, common brewer; Joseph Normington, of Hall-fax, liquor merchant; Thomas Crallan, of Manchester, common brewer; River Jordan, of Manchester, common brewer; Messrs. Babey and Co. of Manchester, liquor merchants; James Clough, of Manchester, common brewer; James Strandring, of Manchester, victualler; Robert Hesketh of Warrington, liquor merchant; Edward Roshton, of Manchester, wine merchant, creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered, that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two Newspapers called the Manchester Volunteer and Herald, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named are hereby required to take notice.

ABRAHAM STRANDRING.

I, Aaron Rayner, merchant, a prisoner for debt, confined in the Fleet Prison, and late of Gity Road, London, and using the name and description of Aaron Rayner, and formerly of Glasgow, and using there the name and description of Aaron Rayner, and before then of Manchester, and using there the name and description of Aaron Rayner, do hereby give notice, that on the 18th day of October, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition, and the said petition, oath and schedule have been filed in the said Court. Whereupon the said Court hath ordered that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at the Guildhall of the City of Westminster, on Friday the 26th day of November inst, at the hour of nine in the morning. And the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving John Hill, jun. and Co. William Ballantyne and Co. Robert Wigham and Co. Robert Kennedy, Lang and Turner, John Connel, Alex. Mackerlie and Co. Alex. Hendrie, Walter Bell, N. and J. Marquis, Alex. McLeish, Buchan and Griese, John F. Sharp, T. Shaunks and Co. Archibald Gillies, Robert Napier, James McFarlane, Robert Waddel, James Hunter, D. Ferguson, William Robinson, John McEwan and Co. Jo. Mackenzie, James Alexander, merchants, all of Glasgow; John Stonehouse, Howarsh and Bowker, James Heald, Foshbrook and Roe, William Pendleton, manufacturers, all of Manchester; Steel and Co. check-maker, Stockport; Richard Marsh, hosier, Leicester, J. Albert and Co. merchants, Smith and Craig, Thomas Livesey, Ward and Jarman, Smith and Dodgson, Child, Cousins and Co. Padget and Byng, Hancock and Wakefield, Fell and Bean, Last, Deverill and Co., H. Maltby, J. Williams, hosiers and lacemen, all of London; Barons and Co. John Butler, Stephenson and Co. Wm. Elcock, John Thomson, John Leech, John Satterwaite, J. Wood and Co. Palmer and Co. W. Dew, J. Clemens, William Shepherd, John Clack, John Brown, Shepherd and Co. John Court, John Roberts, Geo. Atkinson, John Steel, William Potter, Page and Jones, John Allan, A. Shouldham, E. Faulkner, R. Gardner, A. Gray, A. Craig, dealers and chapmen, all of London; F. and S. Eveleigh, hatters, Gill and Co. brokers, Chs. Cheyne, man, Thomas Horncastle, James Percival, Jones and Co. soap-boilers, John Ward, tea dealer, J. Dodds, chandler, Ben. Rutland, oilman, James Ward, J. Harbroe, tallow-chandlers, all of London; G. Delanare, Rूमford, and John Fawcett, Heywood-hall, gentlemen, Dinis Grundy, baze-maker, Bury—creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application, in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf: and hath ordered that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the Globe and the Pilot, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named, are hereby required to take notice. Witness my hand this 30th day of October, 1813.

AARON RAYNER.

I, Arthur Herring, now a prisoner for debt confined in His Majesty's gaol of King's Bench, and late of Deptford, in the County of Kent, and using the name and description of Arrhur Herring, grocer, and formerly of Plymouth Dock, in the county of Devon, builder, and using there the name and description of Arthur Herring, builder, do hereby give notice, that, on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named and specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors in my schedule annexed to my said petition: And the said petition, oath, and schedule have been filed in the said Court. Whereupon the said Court hath ordered that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall in the City of Westminster, on Monday the 6th day of December next, at the hour of nine in the morning. And the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving John Body, Plymouth Dock, builder; Messrs. Palmer and Holloway, Fenchurch-street, London; William Hopkins of Deptford, grocer; Messrs. Closing and Harris, Plymouth Dock, builders; John Visick, of ditto, builder; William Bazon, of ditto, attorney at law; John Harris, near St. George's Church, Borough, London; William Davis, of Upper Thames-street, London cheesemonger; W. Allcroft, of ditto, London; creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, and have ordered that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the Courier and Exeter Gazette, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named are hereby required to take notice.

ARTHUR HERRING.

I, Thomas Mann, late of Dean's Gate, Manchester, county of Lancaster, now a prisoner for debt in His Majesty's gaol of King's Bench, and late of Dean's Gate, Manchester aforesaid, and using the name and description of Thomas Mann, agent, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath to the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath, and schedule have been filed in the said Court: Whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Monday the 6th day of December next, at the hour of nine in the morning: And the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Henry Holt, of Lime-street, Liverpool, carpenter; George Mann, of London-road, Liverpool, builder; James Hardman, of Salford, common brewer; George Smith, of Manchester, attorney at law; Richard Tongue, of Salford, farmer, creditors, named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered, that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the Liverpool General Advertiser, and Liverpool Saturday's Advertiser, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named are hereby required to take notice.

THOMAS MANN.

I, Richard Field, now a prisoner for debt confined in His Majesty's Gaol of King's Bench, and late of Long Acre, in the County of Middlesex, and using the name and description of Richard Field, hat-manufacturer, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath, to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's Inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath, and schedule, have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the 26th day of December next, 1813, at the hour of Nine in the morning; and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving: William Napier, of Grand Junction Wharf, London, flour-factor; William Fitzhugh, of Red Lion-street, Holborn, London, hatter; Mr. Holman, Queen-street, Borough, London, hatter; Messrs. Dando and Co. Bristol, hatters; Mrs. Hill, Abingdon, Berks; Joseph Haw, Guildford-street, London, bricklayer; Mr. Hanks, Blackfriars-road, shoe-maker; Mr. Kenble, Princes-street, Drury-lane, baker; Mr. Hill, oilman, Watling-street, London; Messrs. Harris and Son, Winchester-place, Borough, London, hatters; Thomas Wells, hatter, Borough, London; William Stevens, of Long Wittingham, Berks, farmer; Ann Field, of Watlingford, Berks; Mr. Jeremy, of High Holborn, London, linen-draper; Messrs. Smithers and Sons, Great Suffolk-street, London, hatters; John Brown, Rose-street, Long Acre, Long son, coal-merchant; Mr. Cook, Queen-street, Borough, London, hatter; Creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered, that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the Morning Advertiser and Public Ledger, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named are hereby required to take notice.

RICHARD FIELD.

I, Thomas Horsfield, now a prisoner for debt confined in His Majesty's Gaol the King's Bench, and late of Mill-hill, Leeds, in the County of York, packer, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition or schedule and oath to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey street, Lincoln's Inn, praying to be discharged from all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named and specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors in my schedule annexed to my said petition, and the said petition, oath, and schedule, have been filed in the said Court, whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the Third day of December next, at the hour of Nine in the morning; and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Messrs. Hirst and Lambert, of Leeds, Yorkshire, grocers; John Liversedge, of Leeds, Yorkshire, grocer; John Hayes, of Leeds, Yorkshire, bacon-factor; William Hindle, of Leeds, Yorkshire, meal-factor; John Simpson, of Leeds, Yorkshire, meal-factor; Benjamin Clarkson, of Leeds, Yorkshire, tallow-chandler; James Wood, of Leeds, Yorkshire, butter-factor; Mr. Obadiah Brooks, of Leeds, Yorkshire, surgeon; Wm. Nettleton, Leeds, Yorkshire, shoemaker; Ayres and Son, of Beaston, in Leeds, tallow-chandlers; John Higham, tobacconist, of Leeds; W. A. Bradbury, of Leeds, attorney at law; Creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the Morning Post and Leeds Mercury, of which my said creditors hereinbefore named, are hereby required to take notice.

THOMAS HORSFIELD.

I, John Wrigley, now a prisoner for debt confined in His Majesty's Gaol the King's Bench, and late of Delf, Saddleworth, in the County of York, and using the name and description of John Wrigley, clothier, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath, to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's Inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named or specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors, in my schedule annexed to my said petition; and the said petition, oath, and schedule, have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered, that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the Third day of December next, 1813, at the hour of Nine in the morning: and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving James Harrop, of Saddleworth, County of York, drysalter; John Whitaker, of Huddersfield, County of York, dyer; James Taylor, of Halifax, County of York, drysalter; Edward Pitt, of Manchester, woolstapler; Thomas Hirst, of York, oil-man; assignees of William Blackburn, of Upper Mill, Saddleworth, Bankrupt, Creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered, that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the Times and York Chronicle, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named are hereby required to take notice.

JOHN WRIGLEY.

I, Thomas Relton, now a prisoner for debt, confined in His Majesty's Gaol the King's Bench, and late of Devonshire-street, Queen-square, in the county of Middlesex, and using the name and description of Thomas Relton, warehouseman, do hereby give notice, that on the 11th day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath, to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors in my schedule annexed to my said petition, and the said petition, oath, and schedule, have been filed in the said Court, whereupon the said Court hath ordered that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Friday, the 26th of November next, at the hour of Nine in the morning, and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving John Bowyer, Tooley-street, linen-draper, London; Mathias Robinson, Red Lion-street, London, grocer; N. S. Swann, Friday-street, London, warehouseman; Messrs. Widnells, Holborn, London, warehouseman; Messrs. Ingham and Brown, Peterborough, linen-draper; Mr. Jukes, Newgate-street, London, gilder; Mr. Mills, Great Queen-street, London, warehouseman; Mr. Duckham, Friday-street, London, warehouseman; Mr. Tibby, King-street, Holborn; baker; Treyherne, Drake-street, Holborn, cabinet-maker; James Bailey, Basinghall-street, warehouseman; Gatten, Gray's Inn-lane, chesemonger; Gibson, Theobald's-road, baker; J. H. Kentish, Ludgate-hill, linen-draper; Harvey, Ludgate-hill, linen-draper; Arthur and Son, Great Queen-street, brokers; Greengrass, Drake-street, Red Lion-square, painter; Stephenson, Holborn, Milkman; Hardy, Carey-street, coal-merchant; Broome and Co. Leicester-square, carpet-warehouse; Miller, Red Lion-street, attorney at law; Royd, Newgate-street, auctioneer; Williams, North-street, glazier; Saxby, Boswell-court, ironmonger; Edmonds, Gray's Inn-lane, brewer; creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the British Press and the Day, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named, are hereby required to take notice.

THOMAS RELTON.

I, John Thistlethwaite, now a prisoner confined for debt in His Majesty's Gaol the King's Bench, and late of Carlton, near Skipton, in the County of York, and using the name and description of John Thistlethwaite, cotton-spinner and manufacturer, do hereby give notice, that on the day of October, 1813, I presented my petition, schedule, and oath, to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, at No. 6, Carey-street, Lincoln's Inn, praying to be discharged from custody upon all process, and to have future liberty of my person, against the demands for which I am now in custody, and against the demands of all other persons named and specified as my creditors, or as claiming to be my creditors in my schedule annexed to my said petition: and the said petition, oath, and schedule, have been filed in the said Court: whereupon the said Court hath ordered that the matter of the said petition shall be heard in the said Court, to be holden at Guildhall, in the City of Westminster, on Wednesday, the 8th of December next, at the hour of nine in the morning: and the said Court hath judged fit to dispense with my serving Abraham England, of Broughton, Yorkshire, farmer; James Askrin, of Skipton, Yorkshire, grocer; William Cooper, of Skipton, Yorkshire, druggist; Thomas Laycock, of Bradley, Yorkshire, farmer, John Stanworth, of Marton, Yorkshire, farmer; William Slingsby, of Carlton, Yorkshire, cattle-dealer; Robert Ramsden, of Halifax, Yorkshire, wool-card-maker; John Hutchinson, of Halifax, Yorkshire, wool-card-maker; Kay and Co. of Baslane, Bury, Lancashire, cotton-spinners; John Moon, of Manchester, Lancashire, wool-dealer; Robert Braddock, of Stockport, Cheshire, cotton-spinner; Thomas Struttard, Coln, Lancashire, manufacturer; Samuel Green, of Coln, Lancashire, farmer and carrier; Forster and Sugden, New Bridge, near Hepston-dale, Yorkshire, cotton-spinners; Mrs. Birkbeck, Alcock, and Co. bankers, Skipton, Yorkshire; creditors named in my schedule, with notice of my application in the manner directed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and hath ordered that notice of the said petition, oath, and schedule, be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers called the York Herald and County Herald, of which my said creditors hereinbefore-named, are hereby required to take notice.

JOHN THISTLETHWAITE.