Whitehall, December 4, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Ross, Esq. Commander in the royal navy, and Captain of His Majesty's sloop Briséis, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Fourth Class of the Royal Swedish Military Order of the Sword, which His Majesty the King of Sweden has been pleased to confer upon him, as a testimony of the high sense entertained by the said King, of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by the said Captain John Ross on divers occasions; provided, nevertheless, that this His Majesty's licence and permission doth not authorize, nor shall be deemed or construed to authorize, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege, appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And also to order, that the said royal concession and especial mark of the royal favour, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 4, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased to give and grant unto John Salusbury Piozzi Salusbury, Esquire, second son of Giambattista Piozzi, of Brescia, in Lombardy, merchant, and nephew of Gabriel Piozzi, late of Brynbella, in the County of Flint, Esquire, deceased, who married Hester Lynch Salusbury, only child and heir of John Salusbury, late of Bacheagraig, also in the said County of Flint, Esquire, deceased, and relict of Henry Thrale, late of Streatham, in the County of Surrey, Esquire, also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may continue to use the surname of Salusbury, in addition to that of Piozzi; and that he and his issue may also bear the arms of Salusbury only, out of grateful and affectionate respect towards the aforesaid Hester Lynch Piozzi, the widow of his said late paternal uncle Gabriel Piozzi, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 27, 1813.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that John Farrow, of the borough of Macclesfield, whitesmith, was on the morning of Friday the 29th day of October last, found dead at the bottom of the stairs of his own dwelling-house, having a deep wound on the left side of his head, and that there are very strong suspicions that the said John Farrow was murdered;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall give such information as may lead to the discovery of the perpetrators of the murder, to be paid by the magistrates of the borough of Macclesfield.
