

fore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in His Majesty's name and authority, make publication thereof, that none pretend ignorance. And Our will and pleasure is, that His Majesty's Solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom we ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send copies thereof to the several parish churches within their bounds, that, upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the pulpits immediately after divine service.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of December 1813.
PRESENT,
His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, in Council.

WHEREAS the ancient relations of Peace and Amity between His Majesty and the United Provinces of the Netherlands, have been happily re-established; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared;

1st. That all hostilities against the United Provinces of the Netherlands, (save and except such ports or places as may be still in the possession, or under the controul of France), on the part of His Majesty shall immediately cease.

2dly. That the blockade of all the ports and places of the said United Provinces, (save and except such ports and places as before excepted) and all other restrictions thereon imposed by any Order in Council relating thereto, shall forthwith cease and be discontinued.

3dly. That all ships and vessels belonging to the said United Provinces (save and except vessels coming from, or proceeding to, any ports or places in the possession or under the controul of France) shall have free admission into His Majesty's ports, and be permitted to carry on any trade, now lawfully carried on in the ships of States in amity with His Majesty.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of December 1813,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it appears by the latest advices from the coast of the Adriatic, that the port of Trieste, and the other ports and places between Trieste and the southern extremity of Dalmatia, are, for the most part, no longer in the possession or under the controul of France: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the blockade of Trieste and the ports and places aforesaid inclusively (save and except such as are still occupied by the enemy), and all restrictions imposed thereon by any Order in Council relating thereto, shall forthwith cease and be discontinued.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Westminster, December 14, 1813.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Deputy Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to
