SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inclose a copy of the agreement entered into by Captain Mulcaster, of the Royal Navy, and myself, with two of the principal inhabitants of Hamilton, in the State of New York. Having understood, when passing that place, that public property was deposited there, and being informed by Lieutenant Colonel Pearson that his Excellency the Commander of the Forces had directed a small force to act against that village, we considered it our duty, as we possessed the means, to fulfil the intentions of his Excellency; but not having sufficient conveyance, or time, to bring the property away, and as it appeared that it principally belonged to merchants at Kingstou; we deemed the enclosed terms best to propose.

I also inclose herewith a copy of Major-General Wilkinson's proclamation.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. W. MORRISON,
 Lt.-Col. 89th Reg. commanding
 Corps of Observation.

Major-General De Hottentburg.

(Copy.)

WE do hereby promise, on our respective words and honour, to deliver on the opposite side of the river, at the house of Jacob Wagner, if a flag should be permitted to land, all the public property of the United States, if any should be found here; also all property belonging to His Britannic Majesty's Government, and the individuals thereof, now deposited in the house of Charles Richards. It being expressly understood, that the property and persons of the inhabitants of the village have been spared in consideration of the preceding arrangement. And we do hereby further pledge our honours, that the boats shall also be delivered, which belong either to the Government of the United States, or to His Britannic Majesty's Government. And we do further admit, that on the non-compliance with these conditions, the village be subject to be destroyed.

(Signed) DAVID A. OGDEN,
 ALEXANDER RICHARDS,
 W. H. MULCASTER, Captain,
 Royal Navy, commanding
 Flotilla.
 J. W. MORRISON, Lieut. Col.,
 89th Regt. commanding corps
 of Observation.

Hamilton, November 10, 1843.

(Copy.)

James Wilkinson, Major-General and Commander in Chief of an Expedition against the Chaudas, to the Indians thereof.

THE army of the United States, which I have the honour to command, invades this province to conquer, and not to destroy, to subdue the forces of His Britannic Majesty, not to war against His unoffending subjects. Those therefore among you who remain quiet at home, should victory riches to the American standard, shall be protected in their persons and property, but those who are found in arms must necessarily be treated as avowed enemies.

To menace is unmanly—to seduce dishonourable—yet it is just and humane to place these alternatives before you.

Done at the head-quarters of the army of the United States, this 6th day of November 1813, near Ogdensburg, on the River St. Lawrence.
 (Signed) JAS. WILKINSON.

By the General's command,
 (Signed) W. PINKNEY,
 Major and Aide-de-Camp.

War-Office, January 4, 1814.
