AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of January 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS, in consequence of the successes which have attended His Majesty's arms, divers ports and places in France have been, and may be, placed in the military occupation, or under the protection, of His Majesty; and it is expedient that the same be open to the trade of all Nations, not being at war with His Majesty or any of the Allied Powers; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all such ports and places as aforesaid, after the same shall have been declared by the Commander of His Majesty's forces in those parts to be so far under the protection of His Majesty, as that British subjects may safely trade thereat, shall be forthwith released from the restrictions of blockade heretofore imposed thereon as parts of France; and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's subjects, and other persons as aforesaid, to trade thereat, subject to such regulations as shall be imposed thereon by His Majesty, or by the Commander of His Majesty's forces in those parts.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Admiralty-Office, January 18, 1814.

ADMIRAL Lord Keith has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Tobin, of His Majesty's ship Andromache, giving an account of his having, on the 20th of last month, captured off Arcasson, the French national schooner Prospère, carrying five guns (pierced for eighteen), and sixty men, and commanded by an Enseigne de Vaisseau.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our warm and heartfelt congratulations on the late most glorious victories, and happy turn of affairs on the Continent of Europe.

For more than twenty years we have beheld, with the deepest affliction, the fire and sword which have devastated the kingdoms of that Continent, and the ruin and misery which have been inflicted on its ill-fated inhabitants; and which, being pushed to the utmost extent by the remorseless tyrant of France, roused at length their indignation, and caused him to seek safety in flight and retreat to his capital. Most deeply impressed with the many blessings which we, by the especial favour of Divine Providence, have long enjoyed under our most beloved
