

sion and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 5, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the Hon. Sir Edward Michael Pakenham, Extra Knight of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Major-General of His Majesty's Forces, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by the said Sir Edward Michael Pakenham in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula :

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 27, 1813.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Luce Ann Hunt, of the city of Bath, widow, and relict of Samuel Oliver Hunt, late of Stratford-upon-Avon, in the county of Warwick, Esquire, deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that she and her issue by her said late husband, may take and use the surname and bear the arms of Enys only, out of grateful and affectionate respect towards her paternal family, and by and with the consent and approbation of her honoured uncles, Francis Enys, of Enys, in the county of Cornwall, Esquire, and John Enys, late a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army; such arms being first duly exemplified, according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's royal licence and permission to be void, and of none effect.

And also to order, that this His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 12, 1814.

East India-House, January 21, 1814.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Friday the 4th February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of more than nine Proprietors, to ballot on the following question, viz.

"That this Court approve and confirm the following resolution of the Court of Directors of the 19th instant, viz.

"Resolved by the ballot, that the Court taking into consideration all the circumstances relating to the former appointment of Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Hislop, Bart. to the situation of Commander in Chief at Bombay, to his capture, and to his subsequent appointment at Madras, is of opinion, that the sum of 1500l. only be given to Sir Thomas Hislop in place of 3300l. as originally proposed by the Court."

James Cobb, Secretary.
