and Freeholders of the City and Liberties of Londonderry, assembled as above stated, Aurcus S. Hill, Mayor of the City of Londonderry; Conolly Skipton, Marcus M Causland, Sheriffs of the City and County of Londonderry.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful, dutiful, and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall, most humbly beg leave to offer our congratulations to your Royal Highness on the glorious and happy events which have recently taken place on the Continent of Europe, and in the Peninsula.

In contemplating the successful progress of the two last tampaigns, we are at a loss whether to admire most the unanimity, perseverance, and exertions of His Majesty's Allies, the constancy and gallantry of His Majesty's troops, or the consummate skill and indefatigable zeal of His Majesty's Commanders, the whole of which have been so conspicuously favoured by Providence.

The annals of history have never recorded an occasion on which the subjects of any country could congratulate their Sovereign on so many and such brilliant achievements, such important and eventful transactions, occurring in so short a period, which, ive trust, will ultimately lead to a safe and honourable peace.

But above all, when we recollect the connection and intercourse which have for such a length of time subsisted between Great Britain and Holland, we have to assure your Royal Highness that we view with the most heartfelt gratification the emancipation of the United States of Holland, and the re-establishment of the House of Orange, as well as the restoration of our fellow subjects in Hanover to the benign and happy Government of their lawful and rightful Sovereign.

And we avail ourselves of this opportunity of once more assuring your Royal Highness of our loyalty and attachment to His Majesty, your Royal Highness's person, and every branch of His Majesty's illustrious family, and although we regret the continued indisposition of our beloved and revered Sovereign, yet we beg at the same time, however, to express our happiness at His Majesty's functions being so well and ably executed in the person of your Royal Highness.

Falmouth, December 24, 1813.

[Transmitted by J. Tippett, Esq. Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.] T the Court at Carlton-House, the 7th of March 1814,

· PRESENT,

His Hoyal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HEREAS, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty, by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twentieth of February one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, until the twentyfifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the importation into any port a place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provisions, in the manner and under the conditions therein mentioned; and whereas by an Act passed in the fifty-first year of His present Majesty, cap. 14, it is enacted, that an Act made in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit "the exportation, and permit the importation "of corn, and for allowing the importation of other articles of provision without payment of " duty, to continue in force until six weeks after the commencement of the next session of Par-" liament," which was continued by an Act of the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of His present Majesty, and amended and further continued by several subsequent Acts until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, be, and the same is thereby further continued during the continuance of the war, and until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months, to commence from the twenty-fifth day of this instant March, the importation from any port or place whatsoever into any port or place of Great Britain, of any beans, called kidney or French beans, tares, lentiles, calavancies, and all other sorts of pulse; and also of bulls, cows, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and swine; and of beef, pork, mutton, veal, and lamb (except salted beef and pork); and of bacon, hams, tongues, butter, cheese, potatoes, rice, sago, sago powder, tapioca, vermicelli, millet seed, poultry, fowls, eggs, game, and sour crout, in any British ship or vessel, or in any other ship or vessel belonging to persons of any kingdom or state in amity with IIis Majesty, and navigated in any manner whatever, without payment of any duty whatsoever, except in respect to the article of rice, which, when imported, shall be subject to such duties as may by law be pay-able thereon; provided that a due entry shall be made of all such articles as aforesaid that shall be imported, with the proper officers of the Customs at the port where the same shall be imported, under the penalties and forfeitures mentioned and